BODY OF MORGAN IS LAID TO REST

Distinguished Honors Paid to Dead Financier at New York and Hartford.

AN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

Services at St. George's Episcopal Church and Committal at Grave in Family Cemetery—Beautiful Flowers

Hartford, Conn., April 14.—The body of J. P. Morgan is at rest. It was buried today on the crest of Cedar Hill cemetery, the sixth of the House of Morgan to find a resting place there. His grave is to the west of the great monument of red granite that marks the family plot. To the east lie his father, Junius Spencer Morgan; his mother and a brother, who died in boyhood. To the north are the graves of his grand parents, Joseph and Sarah.

Like the others the new grave will be marked by a small brown headstone, inscribed "John Pierpont Morgan, 1836-1913."

In lieu of a headstone there towers tonight a monument of flowers, masses o froses, lilies, orchids, ferns and cedar boughs heaped in a huge pyramid over the grave. They are the last tribute of friends and relatives who came here with the body today in a special train from New York after the funeral services in St. George's church.

Hartford, the financier's birthplace, had its flags at half mast when the seven-car funeral train, manned with a crew that had operated Mr. Morgan's special train during his life, arrived shortly after 2 o'clock bearing 75 mourners.

An immense crowd was at the station and people packed the sidewalks three deep as the funeral party drove through the strets, three and a half miles to the cemetery. The route led by the little red brick house in which the financier was born, which was draped today in black, and by the great marble memorial building, recently erected by Mr. Morgan in honor of his father, its door hung with a mourning wreath.

There were more than fifty carriages in the procession, including those of the mayor of Hartford, the Rev. Charles A. Goodwin, a cousin of Mr. Morgan's, and other distinguished citizens of the city. Two large automobile trucks carried the flowers.

Over the seven-foot of earth allotted to the financier as his last resting place, there had ben erected a large white tent, church-like in appearance with a chancel at one end. In the center of this chancel was the grave, its sides lined with red roses. Beyond it, completely covering the wall of the tent in brilliant color were heaped the floral tributes—those of the family, the German Emperor William's withered wreath brought from Rome, and those of intimate friends.

When the funeral party arrived Mrs. J. P. Morgan, the widow, leaning on the arm of her son, was the first to enter. Bishop Shauncey L. Brewster, of Connecticut, intoned the opening anthem of the Episcopal committal service as the coffin was brought in, followed by the honorary pallbearers. A curtain was drawn across the entrance to the tent to screen the ceremonies from the gaze of the curious.

"We, therefore, commit his body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, looking for the general resurrection at the last day and the life of the world to come."

These were the words with which the financier's body was lowered into its grave at 3:40 o'clock. The Lord's prayer was chanted by the mourners and, with a benediction, the ceremonies, lasting scarcely ten minutes, were over.

J. P. Morgan escorted his mother to her carriage. Then, while the other mourners were driving away, he went back with his son, Junius, and stood with bowed head and tear-filled eyes until they threw the last spade full of earth on the grave of his father.

Services in New York

New York, April 14.—Funeral services over the body of J. Pierpont Morgan were held at 10 o'clock this morning in St. George's Protestant Episcopal church where he had worshipped for half a century. Afterwards a special train conveyed the funeral party to Hartford, Conn., for final services at the Morgan mausoleum in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Blanketed by a covering of 5,000 red roses, Mr. Morgan's favorite flower, the coffin was removed from the Morgan library, where the body had lain in state since Friday night, shortly before 10 o'clock for the church. A vested choir of 250 voices preceded the funeral party into St. George's. Behind the choir came the clergy, then the pallbearers, the coffin and the family.

Fifteen hundred persons, one of the most notable gatherings New York has seen for many years were crowded into the church. Admission was by card only. So great had been the demand for ticketas that many hundreds could not be accommodated.

The services were conducted by Dev. Dr. Karl Reiland, rector of St. George's; Right Rev. William Lawrence, bishop of the diocese of Boston; Right Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, bishop of the diocese of Connecticut, and Right Rev. David H. Greer, bishop of the diocese of New York. These were the clergymen chosen by Mr. Morgan in his written instructions made some time before his death.

There were twelve honorary pallbearers, selected chiefly from the

POPE RALLIES FROM ATTACK

Danger P[illegible] for Present at Least, is Passed—Relates Remarkable Dream—Affecting Scene in [illegible]om

Library of Congress

Rome, April 14.—The [illegible]as rallied in a wonderful manner from the serious attack from which he suffered yesterday. He appeared to be on the point of death last night; the physicians report tonight stating that the danger point for the present at least, has been passed.

Dr. Amici paid a visit to the sick room shortly before midnight. Although the Pope's temperature had increased silghtly he found the general condition satisfactory. He administered a heart stimulant and soon the Pope went to sleep.

Throughout the day the temperature was normal, the pulse remained at about 85 and the respiration 26. This indicated a considerable amelioration in the bronchial symptoms which was evidenced by easier breathing and freedom for long periods from cough.

In addition the Pope was able to take some nourishment and he showed much interest in what was happening about him. When Professor Marchiafava allowed the pontiff's nephew to enter the room there was an affecting scene. The frail and aged pontiff and the young and robust priest embraced tenderly, the latter being unable to restrain his emotion at finding the Pope so changed physically.

Prof. Marchiafava tonight repeated his assurances that if prudence were exercised the Pope would recover. He declared that his examination of the chest showed that the inflammation which yesterday was marked on the left side, has been checked and was actually diminishing while the bronchial sounds were less noticeable.

After his afternon sleep it was observed that the pontiff looked bright and happy. Although he was advised not to talk, he insisted on explaining how he had just awakened from a most wonderful dream. He seemed, he said, to have returned to his beloved Venice; that he was in his patriarchal gondola on the grand canal. Everything was blazing with sunlight when suddenly above St. Mark's the sky opened and he saw a vision of his dead Sister Rosa, who, descending towards him, took his hand, saying: "The moment has not come for you to join me. Your work is not yet finished."

The sisters of the Pope and his niece are happy in having the Pope's nephew with them, as he is most hopeful for the recovery of the pontiff and keeps up their spirits.

Cardinal Koph, Archbishop of Breslau, is expected soon to arrive. He has the highest veneration for the Pope and, being deeply affected by the reports of the pontiff's serious condition, desires, even if he cannot see him, to be near him.

Rome is taking the Pope's illness with outward tranquility. There is a widespread conviction that if the end is approaching it will not come for some days at least.

Ordinary tourists are still allowed to visit some of the galleries of the vatican. Carriages drive up frequently, conveying cardinals, ambassadors and high prelates to inquire about the Pope's condition.

The physicians have become very clever in eluding would-be interviewers. They enter sometimes by one door and sometimes by another, and there is an infinite number of entrances to choose from. If they should happen to be caught by any one, they are utterly non-committal.

The persistent cold weather augments the difficulty of treating the Pope satisfactorily. He dislikes the use of the heating apparatus but Professor Marchiafava considers it indispensable to keep the temperature of the bedroom at 65 degrees.

FLOOD CONDITIONS

Optimistic Reports Received from Throughout Memphis District

Memphis, Tenn., April 14.—Optimistic reports were received tonight of levee conditions throughout the Memphis district. At Barfield, the point most endangered north of this city, the river fell more than half a foot today and prospects for holding the embankment are more hopeful. Near Helena conditions also are improved and officials of the cotton belt levee district stated tonight that they are confident the dikes along the White river front will withstand a 56-foot stage on the Helena gauge. The weakest points of this stretch are at Modoc and Westover, Ark., the latter opposite Friars Point, Miss.

At both points the work of bolsterin gthe levees is expected to be completed tomorrow. Along the Laconia Circle levee, south of the Cotton Belt district, about 2,500 men under the direction of government engineers are at work. Near Rosedale, Miss., the sloughing of embankment has been stopped and prospects of preventing a break are brighter. Similar conditions are true near Beulahs and several other points.

CURRENCY LEGISLATION.

Plans Informally Discussed at Meeting of Leaders Last Night.

Washington, April 14.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, Chairman Owen, of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee; Representative Glass, of Virginia, who is slated for chairmanship of the House currency committee, and Col. E. M. House, of Texas, one of the close advisers of President Wilson, discussed currency legislation tonight at a dinner given at the Metropolitan Club by Mr. McAdoo.

Prospects for currency legislation at the special session of Congress were discussed, but no conclusions were reached with the several currency measures that have been introduced in both Houses of Congress. The House Currency Committee has not organized, but Chairman Owen expects to call his committee together either late this week or early next week to consider the Senate bills. Representative Glass is of the decided opinion that Congress will find it necessary to pass currency legislation at the present session and it is possible that President Wilson will indicate a similar wish before the House finishes with the tariff.

BELGIUM STRIKE APPEARS GENERAL

Workingmen's Effort to Force Suffrage Amendment a Partial Success.

REINFORCEMENTS EXPECTED

Clerical Press Begins to Shout "Pitiable Fiasco"—No Disturbances or Violence of Note—Dock Laborers Quit

Brussels, April 14.—The great strike of workingmen in Belgium to force the government to grant manhood suffrage began quietly today and at nightfall it was estimated that 200,000 men throughout the country had quit work. This number is at least 100,000 short of the Socialist predictions and the clericalist press is beginning to call the movement a "pitiable fiasco."

Nevertheless the strike has shown greater strength than was expected by impartial observers and because of the fact that the numbers increased as the day advanced, it is generally believed the strikers will be reinforced by several thousands tomorrow.

The strike thus far has been marked by neither disturbances nor any special inconveniences to the public. The gas, water and street cleaning services, and the street cars and railroads are in operation as usual but Brussels merchants say trade is at a standstill. The city is full of children of the provisional strikers who are being cared for by the families of Liberals.

The only act of "sabotage" occurred in a suburb where three big machines in a leather factory were damaged.

Brussels is not an industrial center. There are about 50,000 workmen here, of whom less than 20,000 are out.

At Tournai

Tournai, Belgium, April 14.—The stoppage of work here today is only partial in the quarries and coal mines. At the factories nearly the full complement of workers went into the shops.

Quiet at Antwerp

Antwerp, Belgium, April 14.—Although the strike did not appear to affect this port in any way this morning, there was a partial suspension of work by the dock laborers later in the day. The movement also extended to other branches. Everything is quiet.

MEMPHIS MAN MISSING.

Disappeared in London—Bankruptcy Petition Filed by His Company.

London, April 14.—Mystery still surrounds the disappearance of Joseph W. Martin, of Memphis, Tenn., who has been missing since April 3rd. While the discovery of his torn pocket book first suggested to the police that the American had been murdered and his body thrown into the Thames, they are now inclined to the theory that he is still alive and for some reason is keeping his whereabouts secret.

The river police continue to drag the bed of the Thames and to keep a sharp lookout for the body.

All the hotels in London have been visited for evidence, and now the police are making a house to house search among lodging and boarding houses. They are working on the theory that Martin has left the country and for purposes of his own is keeping his movements secret.

Detective W. J. Burns has been retained by the Martin family to investigate the mystery of the disappearance of the man. The American detective is working independently of the Scotland Yard police officials, using his own European agents. The police are making a searching investigation into the report that Martin was a heavy player at Chemin de Fer, in fashionable gambling dens which he is known to have frequented.

Memphis, Tenn., April 14.—As a sequel to the disappearance from London of Joseph W. Martin, of this city, a voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed late today before United States Commissioner Grant Mathews by the cotton firm of Martin Phillips Company, of which the missing man was president. D. F. Elliott was appointed receiver.

W. P. Phillips, vice president of the company, who appeared as petitioner, declares the action was taken wholly as a precautionary measure. According to the petition the assets of the company, without taking into account valuable real estate holdings, total $430,140.85, with liabilities of $403,163.91.

TO FIGHT NOMINATIONS

Republicans in Senate Will Endeavor to Retaliate on Democrats

Washington, April 14.—A conference of Republican Senators has been called for tomorrow morning to consider plans for retaliating upon the Democrats for holding up more than 1,200 Republican nominations in the last few months of the Taft administration.

Senator Townsend is leading the movement to fight President Wilson's nominations and Senators Root, Burton, Jones, Kenyon, Lippitt and Colt signed the call for the conference.

Indications tonight were that differences of opinion are likely to develop tomorrow. Senators who signed the bill take the position that President Taft made these nominations in good faith without regard to political exigencies and maintain that they should have been confirmed. Senator Townsend is willing to keep up the fight until the Democrats concede they were mistaken and are willing to confirm the Taft nominations where no good reason for withholding approval is shown.

WILMINGTON POSTMASTERSHIP

Mr. Godwin Will Probably Make Recommendation Today—Looks Like Green—The President's Attitude—In Fifth.

Wilmington Star Bureau
23 Wyatt Building.

Washington, D. C., April 14.—It is practically settled that a recommendation for postmaster at Wilmington to succeed Thos. E. Wallace will be made by Representative Godwin tomorrow and as already forecasted in these dispatches it now looks like H. McL. Green will be the lucky man.

Representative Godwin tonight refused to intimate who he will recommend for the place. It is but fair to Mr. Godwin to say that none of the information in regard to the Wilmington appointment and especially as it refers to J. J. Furlong came from Mr. Godwin. Your correspondent was able to obtain from other sources what appears to be reliable information that Furlong will not be named and that in all probability Green will land the prize plum.

"Senators Overman and Simmons had a conference with the President this morning concerning his policy with respect to recommendations by Senators for appointments to local positions in their States. Both Senators, after leaving the President, refused to quote him, but from what they did say, it is inferred that it will be the desire of the President to allow as far as he can the recommendation of Senators and Representatives with respect to positions in their States and if for any reason he finds the person recommended unsatisfatory, he will, before action, confer with them and if as a result of this conference his objections are not removed, he will ask them to make another recommendation. Both Senators made it clear that the President's attitude with respect to Senatorial recommendations was entirely satisfactory to them, and as they understood it, in line with the precedent in such matters.

Major Stedman recommended the following for appointment as postmasters: Robert S. Galloway, Winston-Salem; Caleb D. Osborn, Oxford; J. H. Bowen, West Durham; Finley L. Williamson, Burlington, and John T. Oliver, Reidsville. The Major will make recommendations for Elkin and Elon College Tuesday and on Wednesday will recommend a man for Oxford.

PATIENT KILLS HIMSELF.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 14.—After repeated futile attempts, Joseph A. Smith, a patient in the Central Hospital for the insane here, committed suicide today, using a pen knife that is believed to have been found or to have been borrowed from some relative who has visited him recently. He had a decided inclination to take his own life through the effects of melancholia from which he suffered. He came from Chatham county last January as a dangerous patient and was closely watched.

Recently he found an old piece of tin in the hospital grounds and slipped that into his room to try its efficacy for suicidal purposes, but it failed him. Before being brought to the hospital, he tried to drown himself and attempted to kill several persons. He was 44 years old and leaves a wife and six children. He cut his throat in his room today.

CONFERENCE AT RICHMOND.

Education in South Workers Are Already Arriving There.

Richmond, Va., April 14.—While the first session of the Conference for Education in the South does not begin until Wednesday morning, hundreds of delegates arrived today to attend meetings of various departments and groups. A letter was received from Robert C. Ogden, of New York, president of the conference, stating that he would be unable to attend, and indicating a desire to have some other member elected in his place. Executive officers replied that he will be elected again by unanimous vote. Fourteen separate bodies, each of school workers, will meet tomorrow.

Chihuahua, Mexico, April 14.—Vacivovo Herrera, with 400 followers, is terrorizing the country near here by demanding ransom from foreign residents. He declares he is opposed especially to Americans. The camps of several foreign and American workmen have been looted.

OUTLINES

The Pope yesterday was much better from his second relapse and his attending physicians say now that there is no immediate danger.

The funeral of J. P. Morgan was conducted with imposing ceremonies in New York yesterday and the body later laid to rest in the family cemetery at Hartford, Conn.

The political strike in Belgium began quietly yesterday and at nightfall, it was estimated that 200,000 workmen were out in the country. Industries are practically paralyzed.

The House Democratic caucus yesterday declined to put cattle and sheep on the free list and to reduce the duty on hogs, preferring to stand by the original report of the Ways and Means Committee.

Crazed by jealousy, a well-to-do young farmer of Wayne county, went to the hospital in Goldsboro yesterday and shot to death, Mrs. Lomax, a milliner, of that city; then attempted to commit suicide by blowing his own brains out.

New York markets: Money on call steady, 3 to 3 1-4 per cent.; ruling rate 3 1-4; closing bid 3; offered at 3 1-4. Flour steady. Wheat steady; No. 2 red 1.12 1-2 and 1.14. Corn firm. Spot cotton closed quiet, middling uplands 12.40. Rosin quiet. Turpentine unsettled.

THE HOUSE CAUCUS IS STANDING PAT

Effort to Put Cattle on Free List, and Other Changes, Are Defeated.

LEADER UNDERWOOD IS ILL

Fight for Ways and Means Committee Made by Representative Burton, of New York—Republican Programme at Session.

Washington, April 14.—Persistent efforts to put cattle and sheep on the free list, to cut the duty of swine and to otherwise alter the Ways and Means Committee tariff revision were defeated in the Democratic caucus of the House today. The Democratic leadership fight for the bill as reported, was piloted by Representative Francis Burton Harrison, of New York, in the absence of Representative Underwood, the majority leader who is ill with a slight attack of acute indigestion.

On the Senate side of Congress the tariff revisionists were inactive. The agriculture schedule was before the House caucus all afternoon and there were some lively speeches. Many of the new members of the House accounted their views, but each time there was a test, the committee was overwhelmingly sustained.

Representative Lodgue, of Pennsylvania, a new member, precipitated the biggest fight of the day with an amendment to put cattle on the free list. Cattle and sheep now are dutiable at 10 per cent. and swine at $1.50 a head. Representatives Raker, of California; Russell, of Missouri, and others, urged against free cattle, declaring it would destroy the cattle raising industry in their States. Representatives Kinkaid, of New Jersey, and Curley, of Massachusetts, contended free cattle could make a broader field of supply for the independent packers as against the so-called beef trust.

Representative Curley declared that the United States might soon cease to be an exporter of food. He said the Argentine Republic, with a population of only 9,000,000 as against 92,000,000 in the United States, exported more than five times as much beef and meat products as the United States and that tariff protection in America could only benefit the "trust."

Representative Garner, of Texas, a member of the Ways and Means Committee, said cattle last year raised a tariff revenue of $1,200,000 and that the rate had been so adjusted in this bill that it would raise $500,000 the first year. If the cattle were transferred to the free list, he added, the rest of the tariff would have to be adjusted to meet the loss of revenue.

Representative Kinkead, of New Jersey, forced a roll call, the first since the bill has been before the caucus and the free cattle amendment was rejected 73 to 122.

Representative Burke, of Wisconsin, successfully sought to reduce the duty on swine from $1.50 to 75 cents a head. A motion by Representative Kinkead to put sheep on the free list was voted down 92 to 92.

An attempt to raise the proposed rates on barley made by the Democrats from Wisconsin and Minnesota, was also unsuccessful.

The last fight of the day was on rice. Representative Lazaro, of Louisiana, offered an amendment to increase the proposed duty of one cent a pound to a cent and a half a pound. Representative Thompson, of Oklahoma, moved to place it on the free list. Both amendments were lost. The caucus had got down to the wheat schedule at the time of adjournment. It will be taken up tomorrow morning.

Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee split today on the question of submitting minority schedules on wool and cotton. The discussion foreshadowed a lively fight in the Republican caucus next Thursday night over the question of presenting Republican tariff measures at this Congress.

Some of the Republican leaders, however, are likely to oppose the plan to fight the Wilson nominations. They see little to be gained by it and are of the opinion that they will have enough to do in other ways of combating Democratic policies.

President on Tariff

President Wilson believes the tariff bills meet the general approval of the country, that no healthy business will be interrupted and that while in most cases the cost of living will not be immediately reduced, the consumer will feel at once the benefit of a reduction in the sugar duty.

These views were expressed today by the President in an open talk with newspaper men at the White House. He explained that his main reason for desiring a reduction on sugar was that the consumer deserved it.

Mr. Wilson said he did not see any ruinous cuts in the bill. He referred to the fact that members of the Ways and Means Committee had heard every person in interest and that their judgments were based on those hearings. He also said he hoped to open reciprocity negotiations with various countries as soon as the tariff was passed.

COL. OSBORNE'S PLACE.

His Nomination Will Go to the Senate Today—A Conference.

Washington, April 14.—Senators Simmons and Overman, of North Carolina, were consulted by the President today as to the appointment of William H. Osborne, of Greensboro, N. C., to be commissioner of Internal Revenue. They approved the nomination, and it is expected to be sent to the Senate tomorrow.

DOUBLE KILLING IN GOLDSBORO

Well-to-do Young Farmer Shoots Milliner in Hospital, Then Turns Pistol on Himself—Jealousy Perhaps the Motive.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., April 14.—Quite a sensation was caused in Goldsboro this morning when the news spread that Mr. Cleveland Prince, a well-to-do farmer of this county had gone to the Goldsboro Hospital, shot and killed Mrs. May Carter Lomax and then shot himself, the wound being fatal.

Mrs. Lomax, a prominent milliner, and the wife of Baggagemaster Lomax, of the Southern railroad between Goldsboro and Greensboro, had been confined to the hospital from injuries which she received a few nights ago in an automobile ride with Prince and four other persons.

No definite motive for the shooting has been given, but rumors are that rivalry and jealousy over a traveling man with whom Mrs. Lomax had been in company was the beginning of trouble. Mr. Prince went to the hospital called for Mrs. Lomax, and was shown to her room. When he opened the door, he pulled out a pistol and shot her dead, and then fired a bullet through his own head. He was carried to the operating table, where his brains were running out of his head, and the doctors give little hope of saving his life. Both parties are well known in Goldsboro, and the affair has caused quite a bit of talk here.

Soon after the two entered Mrs. Lomax's room the young lady was requested by Mr. Prince to step into the hall a moment that he wanted to have a word privately with Mrs. Lomax and hardly had she complied with the request when two pistol shots rang out in the room, and through the hall, and, when the startled floor nurse and others hurried to the scene they found Mrs. Lomax dead with a pistol shot through the head and Mr. Prince writhing in unconsciousness from a like shot, self-inflicted immediately after shooting Mrs. Lomax. Her death was instant.

There was an intimacy between him and Mrs. Lomax and many of the more observant suspected that an infatuation existed mutually between them, but few, if any, gave it a serious turn in their minds. Rumors, however, began to go the rounds as rumors will, and Prince went out West four months ago for his health, and people forgot it. He returned two weeks ago and Thursday night he and Mrs. Lomax, in the latter's automobile, left the city together after midnight, on a ride, and Friday morning the wrecked automobile was found on road near park, also evidence that there had been drinking aboard. Rumor again became rife and yesterday Mrs. Lomax was entered as a patient in the hospital for nursing. At this hour Prince is still living, but unconscious, and there is no hope for his recovery. The murder and the attempt at suicide was a shock to the whole city as both were prominent families.

BRING IN FUGITIVE PRESIDENT.

Governor of Alabama Honors Requisition for Ector H. Smith.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 14.—Officer J. A. Bailey, who went to Birmingham to bring Ector H. Smith back to North Carolina to answer the charge of false reports and entries in the banking scheme of the State's Trust Co., of which he was president and the charge of conspiracy to defraud, telegraphed tonight to the authorities here that the Governor of Alabama heard the exceptions to his honoring the requisition and overruled the exceptions, endorsing the papers in due form at Montgomery today. Bailey returned to Birmingham tonight to get Smith, who is being held for him there.

Nothing further has developed as to the whereabouts of W. O. Tarver, vice president of the State's Trust Company, who is as badly wanted by the Corporation Commission as Smith is. It is likely that a reward will be offered tomorrow for Tarver by Governor Craig.

Tarver's lawyer from Augusta here Saturday retained one of the most prominent law firms here as counsel for the defense in the event Tarver comes here to make the fight against the charges, or is brought back a prisoner. His failure to turn up after the visit of his counsel is taken to mean that he does not propose to return voluntarily.

WIRE-TAPPING GANG

Men Arrested at Charleston, S. C., Are Identified

New York, April 14.—According to information received today by Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty from members of his detective staff at Charleston, S. C., two men arrested there and wanted here on charges of operating fake pool rooms have been positively identified by their victims.

One of the men, Commissioner Dougherty declared, is Frank Tarbeaux, or "Frank M. Holmes," who three months ago, he alleged swindled Simeon M. Jones, a coal operator of Pittsburgh, out of $20,000. Jones went to Charleston and according to the message from the detective, positively identified "Holmes." In the case of Charles Carter, another man arrested, the message stated that Major William Pembleton, of Atlantic City, identified him as "Lewis Hall," a betting commissioner, who, he alleged, with three other men, swindled him out of $55,000 four months ago.

Commissioner Dougherty said that extradition papers would be sent to Charleston to have both men returned for trial.

El Paso, Texas, April 14.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez, aspirant to the provisional presidency of Mexico, today refused the offer of Gen. Victoriano Huerta, acting provisional president, to visit the National capital. A private car brought here from Mexico City to convey Gomez was returned. Gomez intends to meet his brother, Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, recently escaped from Vera Cruz, upon his arrival at New Orleans.

WILSON WELCOMES D. A. R. DELEGATES

President, Secretary Bryan and Ambassador Jusserand Among Speakers.

STORMY BUSINESS MEETING

Partial Victory for Mrs. William Cummings Story, Candidate for President-General—Notable Women Occupy Boxes

Washington, April 14.—Delegates to the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which began its 22nd annual session here today, were welcomed to Washington by President Wilson in his first public address since his inauguration. Addresses of welcome also were made by Secretary of State Bryan and the French Ambassador Jusserand.

Both the President and Secretary Bryan told the Daughters that it was their duty to apply the principles of their revolutionary ancestors to modern problems. The afternoon session given over to addresses of welcome, came after a stormy business meeting which resulted in a partial victory for the forces of Mrs. William Cummings Story, of New York, one of the candidates for the strenuous contest for president-general of the society. Mrs. Story's partisans gained authorization for appointment of a collateral committee of representatives of each candidate for president-general to pass upon the seating of contested delegations.

Among the notable women who occupied boxes at the afternoon meeting were Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, Mrs. William J. Bryan, Mrs. A. S. Burleson, Mrs. Franklin Lane, Mme. Chinda, wife of the Japanese ambassador, and Mrs. John Hayes Hammond.

Secretary Bryan in his address told the Daughters that they must throw their influence on the side of the people in their struggle for liberty.

"Then and then only," he declared, "will you be true Daughters of the American Revolution."

Ambassador Jusserand said that the Daughters were keepers of tradition and as such had an important part in the affairs of the Nation. He spoke of the part France played in the Revolutionary War.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, the retiring president-general, in her farewell address reviewed the progress made by the society and declared that there still was a great work to be accomplished.

Factional differences were put aside to hear addresses of the President and other speakers.

President Wilson said he did not know that it was necessary to welcome the members of the Daughters of the Revolution to Washington which in effect already was their own city. He recommended their society for the splendid work it was doing in commemorating the attainment of American liberty.

"We regard organizations like this," he said, "as part of the Nation's love of memory. They remind us of the things that have gone by and of the standards to which we must conform if we would be true and loyal Americans.

"We would not undertake in a single improvised address to set up the canons of Americanism. Americanism is now of so many varieties among the ladies that I am not so sure of my standards on that side of the house and, therefore, I tread very gingerly when I try to set up standards there. But this I know that so far as our National elections are concerned; so far as those things are concerned which we hold sacred in the past, so far as those things go that we intend to live up to and be worthy of, there is only one canon of Americanism.

"And the real, constant difficulty of American politics is to bring it back so that it will square with the standard set up at the first when the Revolution was fought out and an independent nation was established in America.

"We established an independent Nation in order that men might enjoy a new kind of happiness and a new kind of dignity, that kind which a man when he respects every other man and woman's individuality as he respects his own; where he is not willing to shut the door of privilege in the face of any one.

"The dignity of your organization is measured by the dignity of the traditions which you are organized to maintain. Therefore, the American Revolution is worth remembering because it is one of the few struggles in the history of the world which was entirely devoted to the establishment of human liberty."

MOVE TO GERMANY.

Plant of International Harvester Company at Auburn to Close.

Auburn, N. Y., April 14.—Intimidation by a hundred strike pickets at the International Harvester twine mill prevented 500 operators from returning to work today. After 68 employes had struggled through the line of militia and entered the mill, the local officers posted an order to close the mill permanently and to dismantle the machinery for shipment to Neuss, Germany. The decision of the International Harvester Company to remove its mill was assailed in a statement tonight by John Golden, International president of the United Textile Workers of America. He declared that had the company followed "20th century methods" in dealing with its employes the mills would be running today. The company's attitude, he said, has been arrogant and unjust. The departure of the industry will leave 675 operatives idle.

NEW YORK GIANTS LOSE AGAIN

Score Three to Two With Brooklyn Nationals Yesterday—Pittsburg Against Chicago—Only Two Games of the Day.

The hard luck streak of the New York Giants did not abate yesterday, Brooklyn winning the first game of a series, three to two. Ames pitched a feature games until the ninth, when Tesreau was sent to bat for him, striking out. This proved the undoing of the Giants, as Daubert and Smith won the game with a single and a home run respectively, off Tesreau.

In a batfest at Chicago, the Pittsburg Pirates won by batting all three of Chicago's pitchers at times when hits counted. The Chicagoans appeared to be on the ragged edge as a whole, and the victory was easy for the Tigers.

New York, April 14.—The Brooklyns defeated the New York Nationals here today in the first game of the three game series by a score of 3 to 2. It was a well-played interesting game, featured by splendid pitching by Ames and Allen. Tesreau pitched the ninth for New York and struck out Meyers and Wheat. Daubert then singled and Smith won the game with a home run into the right field stand. Manager McGraw used five pinch hitters and pinch runners.

Pittsburg Vs. Chicago.

Chicago, April 14.—Pittsburg today defeated Chicago 8 to 2. The visitors batted all three of Chicago's pitchers opportunely, Carey, Hoffman and Voix making three hits each. Pittsburg's scoring, however, was helped by the wildness of Ritchie and Toney and ragged fielding by their team mates. Robinson weakened toward the end of the game and gave way to Camnitz, who had little difficulty checking a rally of the locals.

TRINITY BEATS DAVIDSON.

Score Five to Four Against the Presbyterians Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., April 14.—Trinity today defeated Davidson in a seven-inning game, score 5 to 4. The game was called at the end of the seventh to let Davidson catch a train to Lynchburg. Davidson scored three in the first on a series of errors, and Trinity scored one. Trinity tied the score in the sixth when Litchfield scored on Spence's two-bagger and he later scored on Thompson's hot one through third. Bell went in the box in this inning for Davidson, but was jumped on for four hits. In the seventh Anderson made the winning run, scoring on Spence's second hit. Kanipe was a lucky as usual, his supporters saving him from many hits. Knight's work at third was of a high order. Batteries: Kanipe, Maddox and Morrow; Bell and Ford. Hits off Morrow, 3; Bell 4; Kanipe 7.

DAVIS CUP MATCHES.

Tennis Player of Philadelphia Not Disbarred on Account Birth.

New York, April 14.—R. D. Wrenn, president of the National Lawn Tennis Association and chairman of the American International Committee, said today he did not believe R. N. Williams, of Philadelphia, now a student at Harvard, would be debarred from representing the United States in the Davis cup matches. Mr. Wrenn added that while the cup regulations specified that a competitor shall have been born in the nation for which he competes and Williams was of American parents, but born in Geneva, Switzerland, he still always had preserved his American citizenship. The matter, Mr. Wrenn added, was purely a technicality and there was no expectation that Australia, Germany, France, Canada or Great Britain would object to Williams' place on the American team, provided he is selected.

JOHNNIE EVERS SUED.

His Shoe Store Venture in Chicago Not Successful.

Chicago, April 14.—John J. Evers, manager of the Chicago National League team, was sued for $300 today by a manufacturer of store and office fixtures who alleged that fixtures installed in a shoe store which Evers and Charles Williams, secretary of the Chicago Nationals tried unsuccessfully to run here, had never been paid for. Evers maintains in reply that he cannot be held responsible for the debts of the venture, as it was managed by a corporation.

Lexington, Ky., April 14.—James B. Haggin announced today that he will sell yearling thoroughbred colts in America for the first time since the anti-betting law stopped racing in New York. He will sell 43 colts in New York in June. It was also announced that John E. Madden and the August Belmont farm will sell colts in New York.

CAROLINA IS VICTORIOUS

Score Five to Four in Magnificent Game at Greensboro Yesterday —Enthusiasm Ran Wild at Times on Field

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greensboro, N. C., April 14.—North Carolina triumphed over Virginia by a score of 5 to 4 in the game here today. The Virginians took the lead by scoring two runs in the first inning but in the third Carolina's chance came and the boys did not stop until five runs were over.

A base on balls, hit batsman and four hits turned the trick. Facing a three-run handicap, Virginia settled down and played hard ball and there were frequent times when the Tar Heels were forced to exert themselves to hold the game. Aycock, the Carolina twirler, did his best work in the eighth and ninth innings and his marvelous work at the critical stages had much to do with the home team's victory.

The usual brilliant assemblage which marks the annual struggle between the rival universities watched the game today notwithstanding the skies were sunless and a cold wind fanned players and spectators. When Carolina spurted ahead and then took a commanding lead in the fifth the Chapel Hill supporters went wild with joy. The stands and field lines arose en masse and the entire field was resplendent in blue and white. Seldom after that did the orange and black color-bearers make much of a display, but from that time on every person who had the Carolina colors took particular pains to let the crowd know about it. It was Carolina's first victory over Virginia here in four years and the boys have the town tonight.

With the exception of one bad inning, Pitcher Neff handled the situation nicely for Virginia, getting out of several holes in his seven innings by clever work. In the eighth Grant replaced Neff, the latter going to short in place of White. In his two innings Grant pitched to but six men. Aycock started badly, Finley driving one of his first offerings past short and stealing second on the next pitch. Phillips walked and Neff laid down a beautiful sacrifice. Liles' single scored the two runners. After Carolina had scored five in the third through Neff's laxness and timely drives by Thompson and K. H. Bailey, Virginia rustled along until the fifth, when a hit batsman and Finley's hit counted a run. In the seventh Finley doubled and scored on Phillips' single. In the eighth a Virginia runner reached second with no outs. Aycock handled Beckwith's sacrifice. Stickley lifted an easy short fly and Green fanned.

In the ninth Grant and Finley fanned and Phillips ended the game with a fly to center. The work of Williams at short, Thompson in left and Bailey in center, had much to do with Carolina's victory. Stickley at third, was easily the star fielder for Virginia and his fast work kept the Carolina score down. Finley easily led the teams in hitting, having a double and two singles in five times up.

TYRUS COBB WAITING.

Says He's Being Given Raw Deal by Detroit Management.

Chicago, April 14.—"Ty" Cobb champion batsman of the American League, may become a resident of Chicago if he fails to come to terms with the management of the Detroit club, according to a telegram sent by him from Augusta, Ga., today.

Cobb, replying to an offer of $15,000 a year and an automobile to act as Chicago agent for an automobile supply company of Logansport, Ind., said that he was still negotiating with President Navin, of Detroit, but would give a definite answer to the business proposition within ten days.

Augusta, Ga., April 14.—Ty Cobb is ready to "amicably adjust matters" with the management of the Detroit American team according to a signed statement issued by him here today.

The statement of Cobb, who has not signed a contract for the present season, is in part as follows:

"I will go to Detroit when I am asked, and am anxious to confer with the officials of the club, but I was told not to report when I failed to join the club in the exhibition games.

"I suppose the punishment I will get for demanding more money will be banishment from baseball this year. But there is one thing about it, Ty Cobb can grin and bear it—and stay away from the parks." "TY COBB."

The statement contained no reference to the report that Cobb is considering an offer of a position as Chicago agent for an automobile supply company.

Raleigh, N. C., April 14.—Wake Forest took advantage of two costly errors in connection with a base on balls and a single today and won from A. & M. by the score of 3 to 0 in the best exhibition of baseball seen here this season. Russell pitched a great game for the Techs and deserved victory. He allowed only three scattered hits and struck out 11 men. Billings played a good game at short for the Baptists and Jaynes and Carrell did good work on the field for A. & M. Score:

THREE GAMES IN AMERICAN

"Smoky Joe" Outpitches Caldwell and Boston Wins—Detroit Wins From Cleveland; St. Louis From Chicago—Rain

Frank Chance's first division dreams of last week suffered a momentary set-back yesterday when "Smoky Joe" Wood outclassed his choice on the mound, allowing the Yankees only four hits. The Detroit Tigers did not seem to suffer from Ty Cobb's absence from the game, garnering eleven hits off the Clevelanders, but winning by a close score. Errors figured muchly in the winning of the game. St. Louis won from Chicago in a close game in which Weilman pitched a shut-out game until the eighth inning.

Boston, April 14.—Wood outpitched Caldwell this afternoon and Boston won from New York 2 to 1. The New Yorks were the first to score. Daniels led off with a single, stole second and crossed the plate on two putouts. Sharp fielding and good pitching prevented the Red Sox from scoring until the eighth inning. Then Wood doubled and went to third on an out at first. Yerkes fouled and Speaker was purposely passed. Lewis drove a double to right field, sending in two runs.

ATLANTA CLAIMS TROPHY.

Largest Attendance for Opening Game in Southern League.

Atlanta, Ga., April 14.—The management of the Atlanta Baseball Association is claiming the handsome trophy offered by William K. Kavanaugh, president of the Southern League, for the largest paid attendance at an opening game. At the conclusion of the game with Birmingham here this afternoon the official paid attendance was announced as 8,836.

Elaborate preparations in every city of the league were made for record-breaking crowds at the opening games. Attendance figures however, were kept down in practically all the league cities by rainy weather and wet grounds. Unofficial figures in other opening games follow: Birmingham 8,088; Mobile, 6,101; New Orleans, 4,900; Chattanooga, 3,840, and Nashville 2,862.

President Coleman, of the Memphis club, declined to make public the attendance figures at that city on the opening day. Today's opening game at Montgomery was postponed on account of wet grounds.

BLUETHENTHAL APPOINTED

North Carolina Boy One of Princeton's Coaches Next Season

Princeton, N. J., April 14.—Falter G. Andrews and Arthur Bluethenthal, both members of the Senior class, were today appointed field coaches of the Princeton football team for next year. Bluethenthal has played center for the Tiger eleven the past three years. Andrews played end last Fall.

Chicago, April 14.—Stewards of the Grand Circuit have decided that the $15,000 horseman futurity, one of the richest stakes of harness racing, shall be decided during the meeting at Kalamazoo, Mich., August 4th to 9th, inclusive. Word of the decision was received by the guarantors of the stakes here today.

FLOOD NOT HALF TOLD.

Cincinnati Man Says Western Disaster is Indescribable.

Mr. O. P. Crocker, general agent for the Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, has been in the city for a day on one of his regular trips in the interest of his firm, and yesterday he interested a number of gentlemen in a story of the great flood that has devastated Ohio and Indiana, particularly. He has been in the thick of it, and said that all that had been written, all the pictures of flood scenes that have been printed, doubled and trebled could not convey the full significance of the magnitude of the disaster to people in other parts of the country. "It is simply indescribable," he declared.

"Thousands of people", he continued, "have lost everything they possessed. The streets of Dayton have been filled with all manner of household goods from costly pianos down. Personal effects were simply so damaged that householders in rented apartments have left their former homes and gone away. Horses, live stock and chickens have been drowned until there is no meat except what has been shipped in. The farmers are the worst off, because their homes, barns and crops have been swept away. The damage can probably never be ascertained, but the railroads alone lost from $35,000,000 to $50,000,000. Their bridges and tracks have been wrecked. There was dire need for a time, but because this country is made up of the finest people on earth, necessities were soon relieved. They actually sent so much clothing to Dayton that a train of 11 carloads of wearing apparel was stopped, the authorities sending word that they couldn't use any more.

"And while the people have lost millions, they now have all the work they want to do and get paid for it, cleaning up the cities. This will relieve their needs for the present. Many heroic acts were performed, but the big hero of all is Mr. Patterson, the National Cash Register man. The Carnegie Hero Fund ought to make one big medal and send it to him. His great plant was thrown open to the public, and every imaginable article of supplies was given to those in need, without money and without price. You couldn't spend a cent with him for anything needed, from a paper of tacks up. Where he got all the stuff from is a mystery to me, but he got it, and he gave it away. He has spent many a dollar at Dayton."

"Well," Mr. Crocker was asked, "what's the explanation of such a tremendous volume of water—bursting reservoirs?"

"They didn't burst," he said; "it was just heavy rains, torrential and continuous."

HAGENBECK IS DEAD.

Famous Animal Collector Passes Away in Hamburg—His Career.

Hamburg, April 14—Carl Hagenbeck the animal collector and senior partner of the Handels Menagerie and Tierpark, at Stellingen, near Hamburg, died today.

Carl Hagenbeck was born in 1844. His father, who had commenced the animal business in 1849 with a few seals and a polar bear, brought to Hamburg by a whaler, transferred the business to him when he was 21 years old. In 1875 he began to exhibit a collection of the representative animals of many countries, accompanied by troops of natives, throughout Europe. The French government in 1891 awarded him the diploma of the academy. Several sovereigns bestowed decorations on him.

MARTIN O'BRIEN For Mayor

Review of Part of the Work Done for the City from June 1st, 1905, to June 1st, 1909, Under the Supervision of the Streets and Wharves Committee, Martin O'Brien, Chairman.

As can be seen today on the corners of every street in the city we had made to order fifteen hundred enameled iron signs with names of every street in the city thereon. The putting up of each and every one of these 1,500 signs was done under the personal supervision of Martin O'Brien, the chairman of this Committee, and it was no easy task to do in the hot month of August.

We received and had set on your streets, 47,000 feet of granite curbing. We laid 366,000 square yards of granolithic and brick sidewalks. We laid 23,000 feet of drain pipe of different sizes. We macadamized Red Cross street from Fourth to Oakdale cemetery, 10 blocks. We macadamized Market street from Ninth to 11th street, eight blocks. We paved with vitrified brick Fourth street from Fourth street bridge over A. C. L. tracks to Nixon street, six blocks.

We macadamized Nixon street from Fourth street to railroad crossing at 13th street, nine blocks. Macadamized Seventh street from Market to Dock. Eighth street from Market to Dock. Third street from Red Cross to Campbell. Campbell street from Third to Fifth street. Macadamized nine blocks of streets in the Fifth Ward on Seventh, Eighth and Ninth streets. Seventh street, from Market to Chestnut street. Grace street from Sixth to Ninth. Ann street from Second street to Third street. Fourth street from Ann to Castle street. Church street from Front to Third street. Brunswick street from Fourth to Eighth street.

We graded and beautified all four squares of St. James Square. Now, one of the nicest blocks in the city. A large amount of grading was done on Sixth street, at Wright and Meares streets. Reference is had to Mr. Chas. Burnett, then chief of police, also a great deal of grading was done at Fifth street and Wright street, see Mr. Dan Cameron as to the work done.

We removed a mountain of sand on Third street, between Wright and Meares where the Tidewater Power Company's street railway tracks run. True, the cut is to be seen there today, but we cut that sand bank down and filled up a number of swampy places, which had been a menace to health in that locality. We also made great improvements on Second, Marstellar and Kidder streets for the benefit of health conditions in that section. Lastly, but not least, the chairman of the Street Committee saved the city $1,700 by filling up the deep valley at the corner of Front and Wright streets. It took thousands upon thousands of cart loads of dirt to fill this deep ravine, and widened the street at this point. It will be remembered that the street at this place was just wide enough for one vehicle to drive along, now it is a broad open street.

To fill up this deep valley with sand and put in a large 30-inch drain pipe to carry off the water, the Board of Aldermen were to pay $2,000 for the contract. The street railway company was to pay half this amount or do half the work. Martin O'Brien, the chairman of the Streets and Wharves Committee, made the proposition to the board that he would have this work done with the regular street force under his command, and save the city $2,000, the contract price. This was readily assented to by the board and this big undertaking was immediately commenced by the city's regular force, with the exception of $300 worth of work done by the street railway company in filling in a corner of Front and Wright street where they had to lay track immediately to run to South Wilmington. Thus they saved $1,700 in this one item, besides we opened a block of street from Front street to the river, which was nothing but a sand bank, and is now a street of great traffic to several industries located on the river front.

This is not all the work accomplished while Martin O'Brien was chairman. The records at the city hall show that during my chairmanship of four years, there were 68,233 tons of rock put on the streets from the City Rock Quarry, just east of the city, at a cost of $1.65 delivered on the streets, the total cost being $112,584.45.

We graded and built a retaining wall on Grace street between Ninth and Tenth streets three-fourths the length of that block from foundation to top of wall in some places being eight feet high. Work was done by city hands, the material used was the old cobble rock picked up off the streets.

I want you to know that all this work done and paid for out of the money you paid for city taxes, and your tax rate at the time was only $1.40 on $100 valuation. No bond issue money was used. No borrowed money was used. No money whatever used but your regular city taxes and license to do business.

With all this on retiring from the Board of Aldermen under Mayor Springer's last administration, we retired with $60,000 in the city treasury. When I was on the board as chairman of Streets and Wharves, I insisted on rich corporations paying some tax for the city docks they were using, not giving them any right or privilege to prohibit any citizen from using them who choosed to. In justice to the corporation I will say that they were willing to pay and did pay over $1,000 per year. Now they are using the same docks, having the same privileges and not paying one cent, but the city will charge a poor white or colored woman running a cook shop, hardly able to make a living at it, $12 a year for the privilege of selling their own cooking, and allow great privileges to go untaxed.

It will be remembered I gave my full time and personal attention to this work for the city for four years. Have I shown lack of business qualifications or ability to build up a progressive city? Have I taken a deep enough interest in the city's welfare? Haven't I endeavored to lighten the burden of the city tax payers? Didn't I guard the city's interest as if it was my own personal business affairs? Haven't I made a success in my own business career? I believe I have and by my own industry and strict attention to business methods and economy, I have been able to retire from business for the past eight years with income enough to live well upon, and will not owe a dollar to any one who will call and get it.

Notwithstanding that in the big fire of 1886, I met with a loss of twelve to fifteen thousand dollars, having three brick stores, one wooden store and a new residence burned to the ground, all in the business location on Nutt street; thus the industrious savings of my own brain and hands for 13 years lay in ashes the morning after the fire.

I held insurance policies on this property in the Wilmington Mutual and Germenion Mutual, two home insurance companies, both failed in consequence of this fire and never paid me a cent. I hold these policies yet.

It will be remembered that the fire occurred on Sunday. Monday morning I had 50 hands clearing brick, some red het, and in 28 days I had the present store on the corner of Nutt and Red Cross streets built and doing business at the old stand. Was this progressive ability or not?

I am now a candidate for the office of Mayor of your city. I will feel grateful to my friends for their support should they choose me from amongst the many good men who are seeking the honor. It will be my sole endeavor to serve all the people well and faithfully as Mayor. Just the same as when I served you as Alderman, chairman of Streets and Wharves Committee and Mayor Pro Tem.

Yours truly,
MARTIN O'BRIEN.

COAST LINE ASKS FOR RELIEF

Famous Selma Connection Case Up Again—Grade Crossing Near Charlotte—Several Corporations—Wilmington's

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 14.—The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., has filed with the Corporation Commission a petition asking for material relief in the matter of the famous "Selma Connection" case under the operation of the order in which the Atlantic Coast Line is obliged to operate a special train from Rocky Mount to Selma when the regular train is so late as to miss connection with the Goldsboro-Raleigh Southern train in the afternoons at Selma for the western connections.

This Southern train with which connection is required is the one that reaches Raleigh from Goldsboro at 4:05 P. M. The Coast Line now sets out in its petition that the Southern is operating regularly a train that leaves Goldsboro at 5 P. M., and arrives in Raleigh and continuing west from here at 7 o'clock. When the Selma connection order was made the only westbound train later than the one at 4:05 was 1 A. M. Therefore, the Coast Line asks to be relieved of operating the special trains except in cases where the regular train would fail to connect at Selma with the Goldsboro-Raleigh train leaving Goldsboro at 5 o'clock and arriving here at 7. The Commission is considering the merits of the petition and awaiting indications of any general objection on the part of the traveling public.

The Seaboard Air Line has petitioned the Corporation Commission to require the Charlotte Rapid Transit and Charlotte Railway companies to install under proper assessment of cost of installation and maintenance, an automatic signal safety, appliance for a crossing on Lawyer's road near Charlotte, where the electric railways are crossing the Seaboard in constructing a suburban line from the corporate limits of the city out to Chatham Heights. It is a grade crossing and the Seaboard insists that there must be crossing signals that will admit of safety signals without the necessity of stopping the trains or cars for each run over the crossing.

A new freight rate classification on marble and granite is put into effect by the Corporation Commission that carries with it a material reduction of the rates heretofore in force in this State.

The Albemarle & Whitney Street Railroad Co., is chartered with $100,000 capital authorized and $4,000 subscribed for constructing and operating electric or other railway and transportation lines within 50 miles of Albemarle, the home office of the corporation. The company can also do a lighting and telephone business and maintain gas plants. T. H. Vanderford, of Salisbury; J. R. Moss and W. L. L. Cotaton are the incorporators.

The Dixie Motor Co., of Asheville, is chartered with $10,000 capital for manufacture and sale of automobiles and operation of transfer and other business with motor vehicles; J. C. Arbagist, J. E. Craddock, J. B. Anderson are the principal incorporators.

FIRE AT LUMBERTON.

Fire Over Grocery Store and Western Union—Losses, Etc.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., April 14.—Yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock fire was discovered on the second floor of the Carlyle Building, on Fourth street, between Elm and Water, occupied by Will Faulk, colored, as a pressing club, restaurant, etc. The first floor is occupied by the Western Union and C. B. Redmond's parlor grocery. The pressing club was practically destroyed by the fire, while the damage to Redmond's stock and fixtures was done by water. The Western Union office was also flooded by water and put out of business for the day. The instruments were ruined and until new ones were brought from Wilmington and installed last night, all messages were handled over the railroad wires from the station. Mr. Redmond carried $1,750 insurance on stock and $500 on soda fountain. Faulk carried no insurance. The fire is supposed to have originated from a gasoline pressing machine, which was recently bought at a cost of $375. The building is owned by Mr. W. W. Carlyle.

The Robesonian office on one side and the Lumberton Bakery on the other side of the damaged building, suffered a few broken panes of glass.

LOCATES IN DURHAM

Trainer of Providence Baseball Team Into Hotel Business

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., April 13.—Dr. Leslie Clough, of Texas, who was in the city with the Providence baseball team during their Spring practice here, has returned to Durham and will enter the hotel business here. He has purchased a half interest in the Hotel Corcoran, and will make Durham his home in the future.

Dr. Clough was official trainer of the Providence Internationals. He took leave of the Providence players at Newport News, and returned to the Bull City, with the understanding that he would come to their assistance should he be needed any further by them this season. The Providence players, however, seem to be in fine shape and from the present outlook Dr. Clough will remain in this city throughout this season.

SURATT IN ASHEVILLE.

The Citizen Comments Editorially on the "Hold-up" in That City.

Inasmuch as Valeska Suratt, the noted actress, is scheduled to appear in this city tomorrow night in the "Kiss Waltz", and the fact that indications point to a record house, the following editorial from Sunday's Asheville Citizen relative to the action of the "creature of much temperament" in that city Friday night will be of interest:

"Asheville audiences have been 'sold' on several occasions, but we doubt if they were ever held up and knocked down in a more deliberate manner than on Friday night when the alleged beauty, Valeska Suratt, made a foolish exhibition of herself and disgusted nearly one thousand people who had paid their money for something that she did not deliver.

"The silly excuse has been made that Valeska Suratt is a 'creature of much temperament', and that her queer actions go to form part of her 'foreign mannerisms'. It may be well to state here that Miss Suratt is not foreign by any means, and she has absolutely no business with 'temperament' and 'mannerisms'. As a matter of fact, she was born and raised on the banks of the Wabash, up in Indiana, where temperament has no place beside the elusive dollar. She waxed fat and grew large in the good old Hoosier atmosphere until she was 20 years old. That was some 15 years ago, and by a little computation you can easily arrive at the conclusion that Valeska Suratt is no youthful beauty and has very few years left wherein to disport her 'artistic temperament.'

"But all that is beside the question of her rank exhibition at the Auditorium the other night. We are not attempting to sit as judge in her cause of grievance against the leading man; the audience was not interested in that, and she had absolutely no excuse for making her personal bickerings the basis of the hoax she worked off on the public. She had undertaken to fulfill a contract with the Asheville people; she wilfully failed to do so and the square thing for her company managers to have done would have been to return a part or all of the money paid for admission. It is folly for any one to argue that the show was finished and carried on to the end of the last act. The public had paid to see Valeska Suratt on the claim made in bold type that she was one of the foremost of American stars, and not to see and hear the mess of nonsense of which 'The Kiss Waltz' is composed. Indeed, we may be frank enough to state that as it was presented here there is absolutely no justification for the production on any stage.

"And many hundreds of people paid two dollars a seat to be 'trimmed' in much the same fashion as the highwayman trims the wayfarer on the road. And yet there are hundreds of men in Asheville who think that 25 cents is too much to pay to see a first-class game of baseball!

"In conclusion, we may state that the local management of the Auditorium is in no way to blame for the fiasco of Friday night. Like the public, Manager Bailey was victimized, and he would have been fully justified in refusing to turn over to the company all of the ill-gotten proceeds."

MASS MEETING TONIGHT.

Colored People to Have Gathering at Chautauqua Auditorium.

A popular mass meeting will be held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, April 15th, at the Chautauqua Auditorium which is located near corner of Tenth and Princess streets. The object of the meeting is to create a better moral atmosphere in our city. The daily recital of crimes at the court rooms each week furnishes enough to alarm all thoughtful citizens of the municipality. The colored peope constitute 35 per cent of the total population of the city of Wilmington, and yet 75 per cent of the crimes are charged to the negroes. Nearly 90 per cent of the persons tried and condemned are not property owners. No city in North Carolina furnishes such a record, according to statistics.

"The subject to be discussed at this coming mass meeting is 'How to Reduce Crimes Among the Masses and to Save Our Boys and Girls From Contaminating Influences of City Life.' There will be prominent white men, who will be present and participate, on the platform. It is hoped that every colored school teacher of the city will be present to hear Mr. J. J. Blair, superintendent of schools of the city; also J. O. Carr, Esq., and others. Several colored men will sandwich with their views as to uniting forces to blot out evil. A large audience is expected. Elaborate musical programme has been arranged. It will be impossible to secure pews after 8:30. If any of the white friends desire to be present, special arrangement has been made to provide reserved seats throughout the gathering. The entire public is invited, without reserve."

Cheaper than butter Better than lard

Cottolene is better than butter or lard for frying because it can be heated about 100 degrees higher without burning or smoking. This extreme heat instantly cooks the outer surface, and forms a crust which prevents the absorption of fat.

Fry fish with Cottolene and it will never be greasy, but crisp and appetizing enough to make your mouth water.

Cottolene is more economical than lard; costs no more, and goes one-third farther than either butter or lard. You are not practicing economy if you are not using Cottolene in your kitchen.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk—always in air-tight tin pails, which protect it from dirt, dust and odors. It is always uniform and dependable.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

Domestic Infelicities Aired.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gurganus were arrested yesterday afternoon for indulging in an affray, and upon being carried to headquarters, the man was required to give a cash bond of $25 and his wife one of $10. The husband pulled out a shot bag filled with "chicken" money and $1 bills, and proceeding to bail himself out, but refused to give bond for Mrs. Gurganus, whereupon a conversation was carried on that was enjoyed by the headquarters men. Finally they prevailed on the husband to put up the cash bond for his wife. Each charged the other with all their troubles and the husband vowed never again to live with his wife. His extreme reluctance to keep his wife out of the guard house overnight was comical in its preliminary vehemence and its final hesitancy. This morning the Recorder will hear them.

Local Victims Will Not Go.

The Wilmington victims of the New York wire-tappers will not go to Charleston, S. C., to identify three men arrested there on suspicion that they were connected with the alleged swindle, it was learned yesterday. One of the victims stated that he thought New York detectives would go to Charleston to identify the men under arrest there. In his opinion the James Dowsing arrested there is not the Dowsing who induced the Wilmington men to play the wire-tappers.

MRS. MANGES ESCAPES OPERATION

How She Was Saved From Surgeon's Knife by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first two years I was married I suffered so much from female troubles and bearing down pains that I could not stand on my feet long enough to do my work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation, but my husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first. I took three bottles and it made me well and strong and I avoided a dreadful operation. I now have two fine healthy children, and I cannot say too much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. LEE MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE MORNING STAR

WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

Tuesday, April 15, 1913.

On agin, off agin indicates shenanigin.

A man hates to take the count when it shows that he isn't elected.

Sometimes a man could profit by taking some of his own advice.

We ought to have a navy big enough to keep us from having to take water.

The reason a loafer never has any luck is that luck does not hang around with the loafers.

The Democratic "lighthouse" ought to be a good one to keep the ship of State from hitting an iceberg.

Fusion means confusion wherever it is tried. Tennessee continues to furnish the latest example of it.

Free wool will make us feel sheepish if the wool States should happen to get out goat four years from now.

The leader of Chicago's auto bandits turns out to be a university graduate. Now and then the wrong man is educated.

We won't have to arbitrate if we have a big enough navy to keep the other fellow from demanding an explanation.

Free water is more essential to people than free sugar. It is all right to raise revenue on sugar but all wrong to raise it on water.

Prof. Harry Peck, who has been twice sued by a woman, will become a sorry aspect if he doesn't quit playing Old Harry with the ladies.

While eastern North Carolina's strawberry shipping season is on, there is no time to dig bait and go fishing. That will come after the rush is over.

A Kansas judge has decided that poker is a game of chance. It is owing to who runs the game. It is a cinch for them and a chance for the other fellow.

Vote for Wilmington in next Tuesday's primary for the nomination of a mayor and five councilmen. A Greater Wilmington is all the average man can ever get out of it.

A man who thinks women are full of vanity because they want a pretty hat, won't pay the photographer his bill unless the picture makes him look more important than he is.

The harvest season lasts almost the entire year in eastern North Carolina. The crop that is now being harvested is the premier strawberry of the Wilmington district. When that money-getter is marketed, other money crops will be waiting for the gathering.

Vice President Marshall, in a speech to the National Democratic Club in New York, Saturday night, served warning on "great wealth" and "special privilege" that "the temper of the American people has reached the point where it will no longer brook oppression." A small financier who feels resentful at such remarks flatters himself if he thinks the Vice President is reflecting on him.

HARBOR TERMINALS AT SOUTHPORT

The Southport News makes mention of a piece of construction that indicates what the Wilmington, Brunswick and Southern Railroad is doing to make Southport available for commerce. Says our esteemed contemporary:

"Work is progressing rapidly on the construction of the approaches to the new dock on the Rhett street water front. Contractor Glenn has started work on the superstructure, caps and sills are being put in position on the completed piling and out over the water. The railroad track has been laid clear up to the piling, and the track has been shifted over into position to properly meet the pier. Grading and filling in the embankment will follow shortly. The new railway station is practically completed, with a set of easy steps leading up to the platform from the three approaches. Everything is taking on a ship-shape appearance around the railway terminal and the completed structure, combining the new freight and passenger station, is a credit to the town, and will do good service until larger quarters are demanded by the growth of business."

These harbor facilities will enable Southport to distribute by both water and rail. It will give the port its first opportunity to share in the commerce of this ocean gateway and add to the water traffic done through the port. The dock and pier will furnish the facilities for docking ocean-going vessels, and as the railroad tracks will touch at the pier, the W., B. & S. will soon be in a position to handle cargoes inward and load ships outward. This is to say that the railroad company has furnished the port with the facilities for utilizing the ocean and railway transportation that is necessary to carry on commerce.

It is now up to the business men of Southport to realize their dream of commerce. The railroad and docks offer them the means of dong business, and if they will get business for the rail and water carriers, Southport will begin to make a record as a port. Of course, the railroad can engage ship cargoes or encourage others to do so, but their's is a carrying business while it is up to Southport's business men to take advantage of the the facilities which the railroad offers them to engage in commerce. The days of pipe dreams are over, and we have no doubt that soon there will be something doing at Southport.

The business men of Wilmington and Southport should take notice of the demands frequently voiced in the State press for a rate-basing port for North Carolina. Hope has been inspired in the up-State editors and people that the proposed artificial harbor at Cape Lookout will furnish North Carolina a rate-basing port. Again, recent mention that the Norfolk and Western Railroad is going to develop a port at Swansboro has caused some of the State press to mention that as a possible rate-basing port. While they are casting hither and thither for some deep water point that can be depended upon to relieve the freight situation in North Carolina, they do not seem to know that the ocean gateway at Wilmington and Southport is the real hope of North Carolina.

The water with possible improvement in depth is here. The necessary competing lines of railroad are here. The established commerce is here, and the additional steamship service that is necessary will come here if the business and manufacturing centers of North Carolina will furnish them something to carry. Ships only seek cargoes where they can get them. A port with water a thousand feet deep would have no shipping unless it would furnish cargoes to carry. They would take no cargoes to such a port unless there were consignees there to handle the cargoes. With only a single one-track railroad running to Norfolk, that port would not be a rate-basing port merely on account of its deep water. What makes the port of Norfolk a factor in fixing freight rates is its deep water, its distributing railways, its steamship service, and the commerce that calls for that service. There would be no such service were there no commerce. There would be no such water and rail facilities at Norfolk if it were not a natural distributing point for a large territory that furnishes something for the railroads and ships to do. It is not water and railroads that get commerce. It is commerce and the possibility of it that gets deeper water and gets railroads. Railroads build to ports that offer them business or the chance of getting it. They won't spend millions of dollars to land at a commerceless port any old where on the ocean.

However, we must not lose sight of the main point that we want to make. That is that while the newspapers of North Carolina are hitting there and there in voicing the need of the State for a rate-basing port, nothing is done here to impress every editor of the State with the fact that the greatest possibility of the State for such a port is the Cape Fear ocean outlet; that the nearest approach to it is at Wilmington and Southport; that the expenditure here of one-tenth the money that will even provide a harbor elsewhere, will give North Carolina the deep water that is one of the prerequisities of a rate-basing ocean gateway.

Right here at Wilmington and Southport, a 30-foot channel is almost in sight. It would have been here long ago had all of North Carolina been behind it. The latest soundings on the Cape Fear bar a few days ago showed a depth of 30 feet at mean low water. With a regular tidal rise of 4 to 5 feet it can be seen that ships of large size can now come over the bar. If they could not come all the way to Wilmington they could stop at Southport. With 35 feet of water on the bar at mean low water, the United States navy could find anchorage inside the Cape Fear bar. The sounding of 30 feet on the bar last week, is about the depth shown by soundings for several months, a fact which goes to show that the government improvement is of a permanent character, so what the business men of Wilmington and Southport and North Carolina ought to do is to get behind an immediate project for 35 feet of water on the bar.

Meanwhile, steady progress is being made on the 30-foot channel from Wilmington out to sea. Already ships carrying 17,000 to 18,000 bales of cotton have gone to sea from Wilmington, and as there is commerce here and more to come, the State should lose no opportunity to get behind the Cape Fear ocean gateway for the deep water that the larger development of North Carolina depends on.

MISFITS IN OFFICE.

Senator Fletcher, of Florida, recently said in an interview: "In fact, the people of this section have not had a chance at the Federal positions for sixteen years, and they are only after what rightfully belongs to them."

The offices may belong to the people, but it is only the politicians who get them. That may be "perfectly all right," as they say up in Virginia, for Senator Vance once said: "The horse that pulls the plough ought to have the fodder." Even so, but many a political horse puts in a claim for a whole stack of fodder when a bundle is about his size. The man who is elected or appointed to an office ought to have the ability to fill it. Being a first rate politician doesn't qualify a man to hold an office, neither does it disqualify him. Offices ought to be distributed among "the people" according to their size, and not according to their wants. We have seen men aspire to an office so much too large for them that they would have to call in assistance in their efforts to even rattle around in it.

Many a man has been elected or appointed to an office when he was by no means qualified to fill it. That accounts for prevalent and general dissatisfaction with the conduct of public affairs. It accounts for the failure of obtaining efficient administration. The whole trouble with popular dissatisfaction with public administration is not due to politics, but it can be traced to incompetency. Efficient service cannot be expected of incompetent men. The only public service that improves is the service that happens to get in the hands of public servants who have the intelligence and ability to improve the service through the introduction of new and practical methods or the efficient application of old ones in the discharge of the ordinary duties of an office. Public service ought to improve after every administration instead of going from better to worse. When administration service gets in bad, you won't have to search very far to find out the cause. It can be traced right up to the man or the men who are not equal to the job. They may be honest and trustworthy, but they lack the administrative ability that is due to the public.

The old story about sending a boy to mill is a homely and more or less rural illustration of the importance of getting things done right. A farmer filled up a long sack with wheat, threw it across the back of his nag, put his boy up on the horse and started him to mill. The sack was unevenly balanced and while on the way to mill it slipped off and fell into the road. It was too heavy for the boy to replace it on the horse, so there he sat waiting for a man to come along and help him out. He was delayed in getting back and his absence caused uneasiness at home. The farmer saddled up another horse, went to the mill and there found his boy waiting for the grist. The farmer had lost his time and that of two horses because he had sent a boy to mill instead of a man. Hence we have the homely old adage: "Never send a boy to mill."

The public has a kind of grist to grind, but it often sends a boy to mill. In other words, when it has an important office to be filled it fills it with a man who is not equal to the duties expected of him. He may be honest but the public service suffers just the same because of his incapability. Efficiency ought to go along with integrity, or else integrity counts for but little for the man who is trying to fill an office that is entirely too big for him. Certainly the public service and the varied interests dependent upon it suffer while some men are getting experience in their efforts to hold down an office that needs a better man in it.

The responsibility for bad or indifferent public service rests with the people who elect or the authorities who appoint. If the people will elect men who are capable, and if those in authority quit appointing inefficient men to office, the public will get the only kind of service it ought to have. We won't find public offices looked upon as "soft snaps" to be served during the rush on the "pie counter." The "pie counter" got into the vocabulary because of the opprobrium attached to the manner of dishing out the public offices that belong to the people. They "belong to the people" all right, as Senator Fletcher truly says, but as they cannot be filled by the people they ought to be filled for the people.

That applies to appointive offices. However, when the people elect, it is their opportunity and duty to elect able and capable men. It is their fault when they elect any and all sorts of men to office, because they are clever, or because they have a "pull." Most of the "pull" you hear about is the noise made by the cogs of a political machine that mostly turns out misfits.

It is not out of place to say that in picking a mayor and councilman for Wilmington at next Tuesday's primary, the voters should carefully select the men who are to conduct the affairs of this city for the two years following the municipal election to be held on the 5th of May. Don't put any misfit on Wilmington. If you expect to make progress in the development of the city.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Houston Post says that the old-fashioned fellow who calls a "turtle" a "turkle" is living somewhere in North Carolina. Yes! And his kinsfolk in Georgia call him a "tarpin", and in Florida a "cooter." Texas has no land varieties of the tortoise family except the little burrowing fellow known as the "gopher."—Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

While Wilmington gets the date line credit in the State Trust Company news developments, it must be remembered that Wilmington is not the home of the wildcat promoters. They went there from other places, selecting Wilmington as a good point for the localizing of their enterprise. And we would say further, that the State authorities are worthy of more than ordinary commendation for their diligence in rooting up this financial scheme before it had fairly got under way. It was apparently a seductive but safe way of making quick and profitable returns from banking investment and an unsuspecting—an altogether too confiding—public, was falling to the game in great shape. The early discovery of the suspicious character of the business no doubt saved good money to many a man in the field selected for the operations of the State Trust Company—Charlotte Observer.

Destroy the Flies

If existing laws were enforced, all our large cities would be as free from flies in Summer as they are in Winter, says a writer in one of the leading magazines. If the farmer—who is often the keeper of a Summer boarding house—were to take half the precaution with his manure heaps that he does to secure boarders from the city, his veranda, his table and his living rooms would not be infested with a perpetual fly plague. Lime, properly distributed and frequently applied to a stable pile, will not only destroy fly larvae, but it will add to the value of the compost as a fertilizer. If the people who manage stables in the cities and farmers who save stable fertilizer were to take proper precautions—precautions requiring but little expenditure of time or money—the fly plague would soon disappear, and many of the diseases which afflict humanity, particularly typhoid fever, would lessen, if indeed they did not vanish. Now is the time to prepare for a long, persistent, and, it is to be hoped, a successful campaign for the extermination of the disgusting disease-carrying fly.

An Appeal to Reason

A crisis has been reached in the affairs of our city government.

The situation presented in the forthcoming campaign for municipal offices is one that demands of the voter the exercise of the most careful scrutiny of those who are offering for these positions. This is especially true of the Mayor, with his enlarged duties under the amendment to the charter passed at the recent session of the General Assembly.

The continued progress and prosperity of our city is largely dependent upon a safe and progressive administration of the public business during the next two years.

The people respectfully present for the office of Mayor, HON. WILLIAM E. SPRINGER.

They submit that he is a man eminently qualified to fill the position with credit to himself and to the people of the city of Wilmington.

As a business proposition, in which it has been well said "capacity and not popularity should be the touchstone," the exigencies of the situation clearly point to him as a man who comprehends the situation and, recognizing the need of retrenchment would not construe this as justifying a reactionary policy.

His record for law enforcement, his ability to handle large affairs, his knowledge of and experience in municipal affairs peculiarly fit him for the exacting duties of chief executive of a large, growing and progressive corporation, and his nomination and election to the office of Mayor is commended to the sober, unprejudiced, unbiased judgment of all loyal Wilmingtonians.

FRIENDS THOUGHT SHE WOULD DIE

Five Years Illness Caused Mrs. Jenkins' Friends to Think She Could Not Recover—Old Lady Thought Different.

Germantown, Tenn.—"For five (5) years I was not able to do any of my work," writes Mrs. Laurel Jenkins, of this place, "and half of the time I was in bed.

I suffered with womanly trouble, and would take such nervous spells I could not stand on my feet, and my friends thought surely I would die. I could hardly get out of bed or walk a step.

At last an old lady advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, and now I can go most anywhere.

Cardui certainly saved my life. Had you seen me before I began taking it, you would not think I was the same person.

I had suffered for five years with womanly trouble, but Cardui made me well. I can't say too much for it."

You need not be afraid to try Cardui, for in doing so, you are not experimenting with a medicine of doubtful merit. Cardui has been in use for more than fifty years, and its sale has steadily increased each year.

In this half century of time, it has helped thousands and thousands of weak, nervous women. It is purely vegetable, mild, harmless, and of proven value.

Try Cardui. It may be just the medicine you need.

ARCANIANS TO MEET HERE

Twenty-fourth Annual Session of the Grand Council to Convene Tomorrow for Two Days' Seance—Features.

The committee on entertainment met last night and completed arrangements for the 24th annual meeting of the Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum of North Carolina, which will be held in the Elks' Temple, this city, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Several social features have been arranged for the visiting Arcanians and members of their families. It is expected that there will be something like 75 representatives in attendance from the 48 councils in the State and a great many of these will be accompanied by their wives or daughters.

The joint committee on entertainment, representing Cornelius Harnett and Carolina Councils, is composed of Mr. H. E. Bonitz, chairman; Mr. R. H. Northrop, secretary and treasurer; Messrs. W. J. Toomer, J. Weil, J. Edwin Bunting and Dr. S. Mendelsohn. The committee has arranged for a reception to be held Wednesday evening at the Elks' Temple. The affair will be attended by local and visiting Arcanians and their wives and daughters and promises to be a most pleasurable gathering in every respect. Refreshments will be served by Mr. Webber, the caterer. A favorite will be Royal Arcanum punch, which will be provided by Mr. R. H. Northrop and Mr. J. Edwin Bunting, who will give especial attention to this feature. The hours of the reception will be from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. Members of the two local councils are especially urged to attend the reception and take with them their wives, and if they haven't got a wife take a lady friend.

The Grand Council will convene Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock and the address of welcome will be made by Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn, Rabbi of the Temple of Israel, and the response will be made by the Grand Regent, Mr. Clarence A. Johnson, of Raleigh. There will be another session in the afternoon. The second business session will be held Thursday morning, following which the visitors will be taken for a trip to Wrightsville Beach and for an oyster roast at the Lighthouse, Wrightsville Sound.

There will also be a luncheon and an old fashioned barbecue. The party will return to the city about 2:30 o'clock. All the local Arcanians and members of their families as well as the visitors and members of their families will be invited to go on the trip to Wrightsville Beach and partake of the repast.

Supreme Regent McFaden, of Richmond, Va., will be represented at the meeting by Mr. Theodore S. Class, of New Jersey, Deputy Supreme Regent. He will have charge of the installation of the officers.

Each visiting representative will be presented an attractive silver finish watch fob. The design was made by Mr. H. E. Bonitz. The feature of it is the five point star of the order, surmounted with pine cones, emblematical of the "Land of the long leaf pine", and the points of the star contain initials standing for the words, Virtue, Mercy, Charity, cardinal principles of the order, as well as for the words, Past Regent. The fob also contains the following words: "24th annual session Grand Council of North Carolina, Royal Arcanum, Wilmington, N. C., April 16th, 1913."

The following are the officers of the Grand Council: Grand Regent, C. A. Johnson, Raleigh; Grand Vice Regent, H. B. Craven, Newbern; Grand Orator, R. L. Allen, Waynesville; Past Grand Regent, Frank W. Hancock, Oxford; Grand Secretary, J. Howell Way, Waynesville; Grand Treasurer, E. L. Harris, Raleigh; Grand Chaplain, Dr. S. Mendelsohn, Wilmington; Grand Guide, N. Burfoot, Elizabeth City; Grand Warden, S. M. Hampson, Leaksville; Grand Sentry, John Machin, Asheville; Grand Trustees, T. W. Slocumb, Goldsboro; J. M. Norwood, Raleigh; W. J. Toomer, Wilmington.

It is expected that the meeting here will be one of the largest attended ever held and it goes without saying that the visitors will have cause to say when they depart that nowhere have they been more royally entertained than in Wilmington.

NEW NAVAL STORES CO.

Local People to Start an Enterprise That Will Mean Much.

The incorporation yesterday of the Wilmington Naval Stores Company, with $10,000 paid in and $100,000 authorized capital, will attract interested attention in the city, particularly in view of the report that the American Naval Stores Company is to liquidate and retire from business, closing the local business. Wilmington formerly was a naval stores market of importance, but the American Company centered the business at Savannah, and left a branch here that handled practically all the stores sold on the local market. The fact that local people are to take hold of the business is considered as a good sign heralding the rise of Wilmington again as a market. The report is that the new company will have the turpentine producers with them. The stockholders' names have not been made public, but the incorporators are Messrs. C. M. Patterson, R. R. Stone and Robert Ruark, well known business men, whose ability and energy will make the business a "going" concern sure enough.

Polling Place Changed.

Mr. John S. McEachern, chairman of the Board of Elections, stated last night that the polling place of the First Precinct, First Ward, had been changed from Boesch's store, corner Fourth and Brunswick streets, to Bardin's store, No. 818 North Fourth street. Mr. Holly Croom has been appointed registrar in the First Precinct, Fifth Ward, in place of Mr. W. A. McGowan, who declined to serve. The registration books opened at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and will remain open through Saturday of this week.

Keen Kutter Exhibit.

At the store of Messrs. Peck & Holloway, North Front street, there is a most interesting exhibit of the famous Keen Kutter hardware, which the Simmons Hardware Co., have made famous all over the country. The exhibit consists of a large knife, the blades of which open and close into a substantial handle, apparently without the application of any outside agency, but which in truth open and shut by means of electricity. The exhibition has created much interest and this up-to-date and enterprising store.

INJUNCTION WAS DISSOLVED

Judge Justice Holds That Council as a Special Health Measure Can Make Contract Extending Beyond Tenure of Office

Judge Justice yesterday evening, after exhaustive argument by counsel, decided that a municipal body had a right to make a contract extending beyond its tenure of office, if the contract was made as a special health measure; and declined to make the injunction permanent which the Wilmington Trades Council secured some time ago, to prevent the Mayor's signing a contract with Hopkins, Davis & Hintze, leasing them stalls in the Front street market house for a period of five years.

Counsel for the Trades Council immediately gave notice of appeal, and the case will be taken to the Supreme Court. The Trades Council was represented by Ricaud & Jones, the municipality by City Attorney Herbert McClammy.

Many citations of law were made by the attorneys engaged, but the point at issue was whether a municipal government could make a contract which extended longer than its term in office. It was conceded that a municipal body could not do this in other instances, but the contention of counsel for the city was that when such agreement was for the preservation and conservation of the public health, the right to so contract did exist.

In handing down his decision, Judge Justice said that viewing the alleged condition of the Front street market in 1911, and its present condition, he could not sleep well if he decided other than he did, and dissolved the temporary injunction against the city. The condition of the market in 1911 was set forth in an affidavit by Dr. Chas. T. Nesbit, city superintendent of health, in which he described its filthy condition and the menace it was to the health of the people buying meats, citing also the fact that during 1911 there was an epidemic of typhoid fever in the city, which was caused by flies carrying filth—and the market swarmed with flies, coming from surrounding filthy premises.

It is stated that the point at issue has never been decided upon in North Carolina, and the Trades Council proposes to fight the case through to the higher court and get a decision.

It will be recalled that the City Council agreed with Hopkins, Davis & Hintze that if they would install sanitary fixtures in the market to protect and properly preserve meats offered for sale, then they would be given a lease for five years. Council passed the order directing the Mayor to sign the contract, but the injunction held the matter up. The meat dealers did install modern, sanitary fixtures, and now the contract can be carried out.

ALLEGED MURDERERS CAUGHT

Haywood and Rachel Pollock, Wanted for Murder of Minnie King Last July, Are Arrested in Newbern by Police.

Just as they stepped from the train in Newbern yesterday afternoon, Haywood and Rachel Pollock, colored, wanted here on the charge of killing Minnie King last July, were arrested by Chief of Police Lupton and locked up. Chief of Police Fowler was notified yesterday and today some one from the sheriff's office will go to Newbern and get the prisoners.

It is said that the negroes since the killing have been hiding in the Jacksonville vicinity, and decided yesterday to visit Newbern. When the officer effected the arrest, the woman made frantic efforts to escape, and the policeman only stopped her by drawing his gun.

The crime is charged against the woman, principally, and the man incidentally, as an accessory. The killing occurred somewhere in the neighborhood of Eighth and Taylor streets, on the night of July 15th, 1912. The pair got clean away and have successfully eluded the officers ever since. The King woman was a member of a party sitting up with a corpse in the vicinity of Eighth and Taylor streets and when she started home about midnight on July 15th, last, she was shot, falling on the sidewalk in front of the house, dead. One or two persons were found who said they saw the shooting, which was from ambush, and suspicion was at once directed toward the Pollocks, who left the city that night. Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, has been trying ever since the murder to capture the Pollocks. He ascertained that they were in the vicinity of Jacksonville and sent officers there once or twice to look for them, besides giving to all the officers in that section a minute description of the pair. They proved a hard pair for the officers and always managed to escape arrest until yesterday.

It appears that the killing of the woman was a cold-blooded affair and if the crime is fastened upon the Pollocks it will likely go hard with them.

BERRY MOVEMENT INCREASING

Cold Weather May Delay Picking Some But Damage Probably Will Prove Slight—Cars Placed Yesterday

Conflicting reports are sent out about the damage done to the strawberrry crop by cold weather, and the best informed authority can give no definite statement as to the extent of the damage; but it is stated on apparently very good authority that 10 per cent will cover it, and that the crop may even regain that loss.

The movement is gradually increasing in the berry belt. Last week in the Chadbourn section 16 cars were placed for loading and yesterday there were placed 35 cars, though it was probable that a little delay in picking on account of the cool weather may result in not all the cars being loaded. Yesterday the first car went out from Mount Olive and the first from Rocky Point.

Yesterday, also, 20 cars were placed for Wilmington lettuce, and the movement of this crop is growing in volume.

M. C. A. by members of the First church.

TWO COAST LINE ACCIDENTS

Slight Damage in Head-on Collision at Mount Olive and Some Damage Done Yesterday at Wallace. Nobody Hurt Seriously.

Sunday morning at 5 o'clock there was a head-on collision between Atlantic Coast Line freights at Mount Olive. Some damage was done to the engines, some track torn up and one of the trainmen, Mr. E. L. Royal, suffered a dislocation of his shoulder; and this seems to have been about the extent of the damage. Extra freight No. 397, southbound, was standing in the siding when northbound freight No. 220 ran into the switch. The southbound was in charge of Engineer Kennedy and the other had Engineer F. Smith at the throttle. Explanation of the accident has not been made.

Yesterday morning about 8:30 o'clock, northbound local freight No. 316 ran into an open switch at Wallace, striking a train shanty cars on the siding. Three of the cars were reduced to splinters and seven more were damaged considerably. The freight was running four cars ahead of the engine and this prevented the engineer to see that he was taking the siding before it was too late. The only person injured was a negro cook in one of the shanties, that car being wrecked. He was, however, only slightly cut and bruised.

THE ORPHEANS

Last Number in Brotherhood Lyceum at St. Andrew's Thursday

For the seventh and last number in the Lyceum Course this season the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church take great pleasure in presenting the Orphean Musical Club, which will appear in the Memorial Hall Thursday evening, April 17th, at 8:30 o'clock.

The Orpheans have had phenomenal success in their past seasons and are more generously equipped than ever to please the public this season. They are versatile, artistic, capable of giving a widely diversified programme, consisting of vocal quartets, horn quartets, solos, illustrated songs and impersonations. They have an extensive repertoire of vocal music blending in perfect harmony, giving the effect of a deep-toned organ. An unknown programme of vocal music and readings is by some considered monotonous and hence the Orpheans are introducing their instrumental feature. With greatest confidence the management present the Brass Quartette, consisting of a cornet, mellophone, baritone and trombone. This is a rare and delightful combination insuring a well-balanced quartette, the richness of tone being unexcelled and a variety of music offered which will please the most exacting. In the rendition of their songs in the pathetic they excell, as their sypathetic tone gains the heart of the audience, while their comic songs are true to life and sung with vim.

Press and personal endorsements alike are loud in their praise for the work done by this high-class organization as will be noted from the following, which is taken from the Peoria, Ill., Evening Star:

"Their quartette work was the best we ever had here, and after each number they were repeatedly called back. As one patron expressed it, each number was better than the preceding one, and Rev. W. S. Jacobs, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Houston, Texas, and manager of the Lyceum Course, remarks that 'after twenty years' of experience in lyceum work I feel that I am entitled to an opinion, and I unhesitatingly pronounce the Orpheans a success.'"

SUPERIOR COURT ADJOURNS

Term Came to Rather Unexpected End Yesterday Afternoon Made Possible by Compromise of Partition Suit

The sudden termination, through a compromise, of a case brought to establish the heirs at law of a colored man who died last year made it possible for Superior Court to adjourn for the term late yesterday afternoon. Enough work had been mapped out to keep the court busy until Wednesday afternoon and the term would have continued for at least that long had it not been for the settlement of the case mentioned. Judge Justice will leave this morning for his home at Rutherfordton. Next week he will hold court at Jacksonville, Onslow county.

The morning session was taken up with the introduction of testimony in the case of Eugene S. Knight against D. R. Foster and Gertrude Foster, in which the plaintiff sought to recover $10,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received when he fell over a gate swinging open on the sidewalk from property owned by Mr. Foster, some months ago. Upon the completion of the plaintiff's evidence and upon motion of defendant's counsel a judgment of non-suit was entered. Judge Justice held that the owner of the property could not be held responsible for the gate swinging open, when the premises were in charge of another. Ricaud & Jones appeared for the plaintiff, while J. D. Bellamy & Son and Kellum & Loughlin represented the defendants.

Non-suit was entered in the case of Don C. B. VanDusen against The A. J. McKinnon Co. The case of H. McClammy, trustee, against A. C. Sneed & Co., was continued. The demurrer in the case of Prease Bros., Inc., against J. C. Mallard was sustained and the action was dismissed. The plaintiff was suing for $121.05 on contract. The action rightfully should have been brought in a magistrate's court instead of in Superior Court. H. L. Stevens, Esq., of Warsaw, appeared for the defendants.

After the jury had practically been selected in the case of Susie D. Benders, et al., against Annie Rogers, et al., an action for partition of land and to establish the heirs at law of Joshua H. Tucker, colored, who died last June, counsel for the plaintiffs and the defendants held a conference and agreed upon a settlement. By consent the following issue was submitted to the jury and answered in the affirmative: "Are the plaintiffs, Susie D. Benders, Laura McClain, and the defendants, Annie G. Rogers and Mary Emma Bell, the sole heirs at law of Joshua H. Tucker and seized in fee as tenants in common of the property described in the petition?" It was stated that at least a day and a half would have been required to try the case. W. P. Mangum Turner, C. D. Weeks and J. D. Bellamy & Son represented the plaintiffs, while Stacy & Kenan represented the administratrix and one of the defendants and Ricaud & Jones another of the defendants.

The following entries were made in cases on the motion docket: John H. Denton against Sarah A. Holland, non-suit; J. G. Foreman against C. R. L. and P. Co., non-suit; M. E. Heyer, admx., vs. Richard Smith; Addie M. Bryan against Hilton Lumber Co., dismissal; J. B. Warr against H. G. Ritner, non suit; Jas. J. Darby against Louis Simmons, non-suit; Robt. N. Murphy against Tidewater Powe rCo., dismissal; Thos. R. Mask, et al., against Monroe Hawkins, et al.; order for new parties; A. J. Marshall against J. O. Nixon, et al., non-suit; Williams-Clark Co., against Levi MacMillan & Co., non-suit; Jerry Carew against A. C. L. Railroad Co., non-suit; Mattie Lanier against E. J. Lanier, non-suit; Phil G. Kelly Co., against M. E. Gallagher, 30 days to file answer; Mamie S. Garrison against Miles Garrison, action abates; A. E. Blake against A. C. L. Railroad Co., continued; Flossie Goins against Harvey Watson, alias Henry W. Harriss, non-suit; L. N. Mitchell against Tidewater Power Co., dismissal; Ed Keathley against S. Behrends, non-suit; M. Schnibben against Chas. Evans, et al., non-suit; James Arnette against Wilmington Door and Lumber Co., non-suit; C. D. Weeks against Andrew Moore, et al., non-suit; E. J. Schabelitz against Sol. Bear & Co., non-suit; Martha J. Register against Tidewater Power Co., time to file pleadings; J. W. Powell, et al., against Roger Moore, et al., non-suit; Prease Bros. Co., against J. C. Mallard; Boney & Harper Milling Co., against J. C. Stevenson Co., application to pay dividend and for allowances and for other orders, by consent judge to sign order out of term and out of this district; W. L. Squires against Wynnewood Lumber Co., defendant allowed 15 days to file answer since last continuance and plaintiff allowed 15 days to file amended complaint.

W. B. Davis, colored, failed to obtain a divorce from Mamie Davis, Judge Justice holding that from the evidence adduced that the defendant was more entitled to a decree than the plaintiff. Davis testified that he was in the United States army at the time of his marriage; that he re-enlisted at the expiration of his first enlistment; that he sent money for the support of his wife until notified by her that he need not send her any more money; that since he received the letter he did not know of his own knowledge of the whereabouts of his wife. Another witness was placed on the stand and testified that he married the Davis woman in Pennsylvania a few years ago; that she led him to believe that she was a widow and was receiving from the government a pension every month on account of the death of her husband; that she lived with him three years and then departed.

Judge Justice held that the plaintiff, W. B. Davis, was himself plainly guilty of desertion because he went back in the army after the expiration of his first enlistment. He thought she would have a good case for divorce against him. As to the man who married the woman in Pennsylvania he could easily secure release from the woman, said the court. Judge Justice said that if the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff he would refuse to sign the decree. A. G. Ricaud, Esq., who represented the plaintiff, then asked that a juror be withdrawn and a mistrial ordered, which was done. The jury drawn and empanelled to try the case was composed of the following: W. P. Stacy, Herbert McClammy, L. H. Burnett, J. A. McNorton, J. O. Carr, George Bountree, C. C. Loughlin, B. Frank King, Jr., Marsden Bellamy, Woodus Kellum, C. D. Weeks, John S. Ramos.

In the case of Alice P. Carter against her husband, C. H. Carter, an action for divorce from bed and board and alimony, John D. Bellamy & Son, asked that Carter be attached for contempt of court for failure to comply with and order of Judge Carter that he pay to his wife $50 a month pending final disposition of the case. Mr. Bellamy said that Carter had not paid anything for February, March and April. Carter is represented to be worth $30,000 or $40,000. His wife is suing for divorce on the ground of cruelty. Judge Justice directed that Carter be attached for contempt for not complying with the order of the court. He stated that he would direct the court that if Carter pays the $50 a month that he not be put in jail.

In the case of V. Sidbury against Alice P. Carter, brought to secure possession of the house occupied by Mrs. Carter on which it is claimed Mr. Sidbury has a mortgage, Judge Justice appointed Major W. N. Harriss, Clerk of Superior Court, as receiver and he is to take charge and possession of the house and premises described in the complaint and to rent the same to the best advantage until the final hearing of the cause, but the receiver is not to take charge of same until April 24th. C. D. Weeks, Esq., represents Mr. Sidbury. Mr. Bellamy stated that Mrs. Carter would probably remove to a house that would rent for less money before the expiration of the ten days.

Judgment was signed in the case of D. M. Gregg against the Seaboard Air Line.

With reference to the petitions of the receivers of the Bank of New Hanover and the branch bank at Wadesboro, filed Saturday, report of which was given in Saturday's paper, the following entry was made yesterday: "Application for allowances for receivers for themselves and for counsel fees and permission to pay dividends, decision reserved and by consent court to sign decree and order out of term and out of district."

..Theatrical..

Fresh from its year and a half success at the New York Casino, "The Kiss Waltz" with the important metropolitan cast, headed by the noted beauty, Valeska Suratt, will be sung at the Academy tomorrow night. "The Kiss Waltz" was one of the first musical plays to be brought out on Broadway last season. Its success was immediate and it was heralded as "the dancingest show" in New York. The piece was originally done in Vienna where it ran for over a year under the title of "The Love Waltz". The music is by Ziehrer, composer of Fritzi Scheff's "Mlle. Mischief", and the adaptation was done by Edgar Smith. The play abounds in big and novel dancing numbers and those rare moments of fun when nothing short of an explosion of laughter will give relief. There are two acts. The first shows a hotel on the Riviera and the second the Villa Wildenberg. In both scenes there are many pretty girls and displays of handsome costumes. The principal character is Guido Spini, a handsome composer, who falls in love with every pretty woman he meets. He has many opportunities for the ladies of the hotel are simply crazy about him. Nella, Baroness von Barnau, (Miss Suratt) has the affection but she cannot show it. It is arranged that she go to the home of Countess Wildenberg, where Guido is invited. He mistakes the quarry and makes love to the Countess, and, of course, is discovered by the irate husband, a flirtatious old cove himself. There are 14 principal characters in the operetta, many roles and choruses, and a wealth of fashionable London and Paris costumic effects. Seats went on sale at Plummer's yesterday, the scale going to $2.

Four Pictures at the Grand.

The biggest and brightest bills, the most delightful place to spend an hour or more during these crisp Spring afternoons is what the Grand Theatre offers to Wilmington amusement lovers. There will be four pictures all told today and Harry Harris will sing "When I Dream of Old Erin, I'm Dreaming of You". This is a splendid number and admirers of this favorite singer should hear him in this selection.

The feature in the pictures today will perhaps be a big double Edison, "The Long and Short of It", a thrilling dramatic subject, and "Tea and Toast," a comedy manufactured for laugh purposes only and telling the varied experiences of a chronic dyspeptic. A third feature picture will be "The Gate She Left Open." The latter is the story of a lover's quarrel and what became of it. Then there will be a fourth picture, just as big, just as good, but not featured. These pictures, the song by Mr. Harris and the music by the orchestra at the Grand will serve to make up one of the best bills of the week at the popular-priced theatre of Wilmington.

At the Bijou.

With four big reels of pictures, including films in which the charming and noted actress, Miss Edith Story, and that well known and popular actor, Mr. G. M. Anderson, will star, the Bijou will offer something extra good today in the way of a show. In addition to this will be a new menu of merry music, while the usual solid comfort ways of the Bijou will be in evidence and which include free and hygienic ventillation, thus affording the children a safe place and the grown-ups a most delightful spot in which to witness a big show, and all for 5 cents, as the theatre never changes its price of admission. Miss Storey will appear in the latest Vitagraph, "Two Women and Two Men." It is a gripping society drama, with Miss Storey in the role of a fascinating Sireen. G. M. Anderson will appear as the star of "Broncho Billy's Gratefulness," and it is a thriller right on the jump. "Who's Champion Now?" is a Cines fun film on today and it is a rouser, telling of a "big bluff" who claims to be a great wrestler and what he does and what folks do to him.

Another mirth photoplay is also a topliner in "Their Country Relations". It is the purest kind of a smile picture, that will do one well to behold.

ATTEMPTED HOUSE ROBBERY

Two Young Negroes Try to Enter Dwelling and Store Last Night

About 11 o'clock last night Mr. Ed. Allen and Constable J. A. Davis caught Johnny Howard, a negro boy aged 14, and almost caught another boy, who had tried to enter the dwelling and store of Mr. B. B. Brown, at Fifth and Dawson streets. Howard was locked up, gave the constable the name of the other boy, and the officer felt sure of having him ready for the court this morning.

As Mr. Allen passed the Brown place, he saw a negro boy in the window of the dwelling portion of the combination building, and another boy on the ground. He quickly went to Sixth and Castle streets, where he got the constable and together they returned, and found one of the boys attacking the window of the store, stand on. Unable to pry the window open with a stick, he smashed a window pane. The noise frightened the two and they ran around the building, Howard landing in the arms of the constable.

The boy said he was an orphan and lived with his grandmother at 614 Dawson street.

Four Pictures Today.

FURLONG IMPOSSIBLE?

Telegram to This Effect from Washington—Green or McEachern?

From telegrams said to have been received here during the past few days from Washington, it seems that Recorder John J. Furlong is no longer regarded as formidable aspirant for the local postmastership and that the two who stand the best chance of winning are Mr. H. McL. Green and Mr. D. McEachern, both of whom have strong backing, political and otherwise.

It was reported yesterday that Congressman Godwin on Sunday wired one of his friends in this city to the effect that President Wilson had let it be understood that he would not consider the appointment of Recorder Furlong and the Congressman asked that his friends here unite on some other candidate who would be agreeable alike to the President and the people of this community.

Another citizen is said to have received a telegram and letter from Senator Simmons asking if Mr. H. McL. Green would be reasonably satisfactory to the people of Wilmington. It is not known what replies were sent to Senator Simmons and Congressman Godwin.

It was reported last night that Recorder Furlong, who is still in Washington, had telegraphed to two friends here urging them to give their endorsement to Mr. McEachern, the Recorder saying that he believed him the strongest man in the race now. One of those who it is reported received the telegram denied most emphatically the receipt of any message whatever from Washington regarding the postmastership. The other could not be gotten on over the telephone last night, so it is not known whether the rumor has any foundation in fact and is merely given for what it is worth.

In his correspondence to yesterday's Greensboro News Mr. Parker R. Anderson stated that it developed in Washington Sunday that Mr. H. McL. Green is probably the most likely man to succeed Mr. Wallace as postmaster. He pointed out that Mr. Green is a brother-in-law of Dr. Edwin Anderson Alderman, president of the University of Virginia, the latter a close friend of President Wilson.

IN HONOR OF DR. NUTT

Joint Meetings of the Pythians Lodges of the City Tonight

There will be a joint meeting of the Wilmington Pythians lodges in Castle Hall tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock, in honor of Dr. James D. Nutt, who until a few weeks ago was State Deputy Grand Chancellor of the order in North Carolina, which office he held with conspicuous ability for nine years, resigning to accept a position in Wilmington so that he could spend more time with his family. It is expected that the meeting tonight will be largely attended as there is no more popular Pythian in the State than Doc Nutt. Short talks will be made by some of the most prominent Pythians and refreshments will be served. A very enjoyable time is expected and all Pythians are cordially invited to attend. Mr. Nutt is a member of Clarendon Lodge No. 2.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Docket Yesterday Unusually Light for a Monday's Session.

Substitute Recorder Harriss had little to do yesterday morning, compared with the usual amount of business in the Recorder's court Mondays. J. F. Boger was convicted of carrying a razor and given three months on the roads. Willie Hill, charged with larceny of $3 belonging to W. J. Spooner, drew six months on the chain gang. Lizie Edwards and Viola Johnson had a difference and were fined $10 each, the costs being divided.

All the other cases heard were those charging public drunkenness.

POUND OF SOLID FLESH DAILY

Good, Healthy Fat and Muscle Put on Your Bones By Using SAMOSE

Money Positively Refunded if This Scientific Treatment Fails To Do All That Is Claimed For It.

SAMOSE, a Concentrated Flesh Forming Food, the Only Remedy Known for Thinness—Builds Up the Thin and Weak, Brings Back the Rosy Blush of Health to Pale Cheeks, Rounds Out the Scrawny Form and Gives the Beauty Lines of Plumpness.

TO PALE, THIN PEOPLE.

Pale, thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment. They may eat enough, but their food is not properly digested and does them no good.

Samose, the remarkable flesh-forming food, should be used by all who are pale, weak and thin. It mingles with the food and aids assimilation, so that when taken for a short time Nature will soon assert her normal powers, and the food that is eaten will give strength and good flesh.

Weigh yourself before you commence the use of Samose, and you will notice steady gain. Samose is not a cod liver oil or similar nauseating concoction, but a scientific, flesh-forming food that restores the thin and scrawny to their proper weight, and fills the weak and debilitated with vigor and vitality.

The woman who longs for rosy cheeks and the plumpness of beauty should use Samose. The man who wants to be strong and well and gain health and good flesh will find his desires accomplished by Samose.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Samose that J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., is willing to pay for the treatment if it does not give the desired results. They make this offer generally, and want all who are thin, weak or out of health to get a box of Samose on those terms. Price 50c.

THE FATNESS OF HEALTH.

If you are thin, your health is not what it should be. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that should be attended to at once. You cannot be healthy and strong if you are thin.

Perfect health and good, solid, beautiful flesh can only come through the use of Samose, the remarkable flesh-forming food.

This makes the thin and scrawny plump and robust; it mixes with the food so that all of the elements that make solid bone, firm muscle and good flesh are thoroughly assimilated and retained in the system.

Samose is not a drug or a stimulant; it is a scientific flesh-forming food that restores thin people to a normal condition of good healthy flesh.

There are thousands of unhappy, nervous, thin people who would look and feel entirely different if they were only fat and plump. Let them use Samose and they will soon notice remarkable results.

These statements are confirmed by J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., who offer to refund the money to anyone buying and using Samose who does not gain in weight as promised. The risk is his. The thin and scrawny can buy Samose at J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. with the knowledge that if it is not successful it will cost absolutely nothing.

A LIBERAL OFFER.

When one of the leading druggists in Wilmington tells you that he has a preparation on which he will refund your money if it does not do all that is claimed for it, it shows that the article must have unusual merits. It is in this way that J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., sells Samose, the remarkable flesh-forming food.

This great discovery is destined to work a great revolution in treating the thin, the weak and the sick. There can be no doubt that it helps people who are weak and sickly, who are tired, and who have poor digestion, restoring them quickly to health and strength, and increasing the weight so that life is a pleasure and a joy.

Samose is in reality a concentrated food, and restores life and vitality at once to the blood. It mixes with the ordinary foods and aids digestion; it extracts from the food that you eat the flesh-forming and strength-giving elements, building up the tissues and the general health.

Anyone can get a 50-cent box of this remarkable flesh-forming food, knowing that their money will be refunded if it does not increase weight and restore the system to health.

OLD FOLKS FIND NEW REMEDY RELIEVES ALL KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Drives Rheumatic Pains Away, Relieves Backache and Bladder Disorders After a Few Doses Are Taken

Sleep disturbing bladder weaknesses, backache, rheumatism, and the many other kindred ailments which so commonly come with declining years, need no longer be a source of dread and misery to those who are past the middle age of life.

The new discovery, Croxone, cures all such disorders because it removes the very cause of the trouble. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering glands and cells, and gives the kidneys new strength to do their work properly. It neutralizes and dissloves the poisonous uric acid substances that lodge in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; and makes the kidneys filter and sift out all the poisonous waste matter from the blood and drive it out of the system.

It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, Croxone is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work immediately and more than a few doses are seldom required to relieve even the most chronic, obstinate case.

It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for restoring the lifeless organs to health and strength and ridding the system of every particle of uric acid, and you can take it with the utmost confidence that nothing on earth will so quickly cure such conditions.

You can obtain an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

Don't Dose the Stomach—Apply Externally

VICK'S Croup and Pneumonia SALVE

The New Vapor Treatment

Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve is applied externally — just rub it well, over throat and chest. Cover with warm flannel cloth — the heat of the body releases soothing antiseptic vapors, which are inhaled directly to the inflamed parts. Vick's is also absorbed through the skin, taking out the soreness. Give the sufferer plenty of fresh air—open the windows wide—relief follows quickly. The tough phlegm is loosened and breathing becomes easy. No danger of an upset stomach, no swallowing of nauseating doses. The treatment is external.

Three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00—at druggists. Sample mailed on request. Vick Chemical Co., Greensboro, N. C.

ACTIVE SELLING IN COTTON WEATHER MAP BROKE WHEAT TRADING IN STOCKS LAGGED

Offerings, However, Well Taken and Partial Rallies Occurred—Net Loss of 18 Points on April. Favorable Weather.

New York, April 14.—There was quite an active selling movement at the opening of the cotton market today, but offerings were well taken and partial rallies occurred with the close steady at a net loss of 18 points on April and of 1 to 6 points on later months.

The opening which was delayed until nearly midday, owing to the funeral of J. P. Morgan, was steady, at a decline of from 5 to 8 points, and active months sold 7 to 9 points net lower during the first few minutes. This was the result of heavy liquidation and renewed bear pressure, encouraged by lower Liverpool cables, more favorable weather in the South over Sunday and reports that the dry goods trade was showing nervousness over tariff uncertainties. The report of the census bureau indicating a well sustained volume of domestic mill consumption during the month of March and a loss of about 26,000 bales in mills stock of raw material since the end of February, appeared to attract no special attention, but the early sales were readily absorbed as a result of foreign straddle buying, moderate support from trade sources and covering by some of last week's sellers.

A possibility that low barometers in the Northwest might bring unsettled weather to the Belt by the middle of the week, probably promoted part of the covering, but after a rally to within a point or two of Saturday's closing figures the market became quiet and subsequent fluctuations were rather irregular. Houses with New Orleans-Memphis connections were among the sellers here, while Wall Street sold considerable cotton during the early trading. Private cables from Liverpool attributed the decline there to selling by recent buyers, but both Liverpool and the continent were credited with buying here.

Spot cotton closed quiet. Middling uplands, 12.40; do. gulf, 12.65; sales, 200 bales.

Futures closed steady.

Demand Was Strengthened to Absorb Offerings at Concessions—Session Delayed on Account Death of Morgan.

New York, April 14.—The demand for stocks today was strengthened to absorb offerings at concessions and prevent a substantial break in the market, but there was no aggressive buying and trading lagged. When the market opened at noon the session having been delayed two hours on account of the funeral of J. P. Morgan, price changes were small and irregular.

A heavy tone developed in the early transactions, despite tentative efforts to bid up some of the leaders and quotations gradually shaded off as the day advanced. Pressure was most effective against Reading, Lehigh Valley and Chesapeake and Ohio, all of which were forced down a point or more, and a few of the newer industrials which recently have been weak. The bulk of the Standard stocks, however, were not greatly affected and sustained only fractional losses.

The petroleum stocks were especially weak, California, common and preferred, and Mexican falling two points or more, to new low figures. Rumely also touched a new low price, dropping a point to 31.

Discrimination by banks against certain industrial stocks, as collateral, was said to be partially responsible for weakness in this quarter of the list.

The cables reported that European markets were more cheerful and Americans advanced in London before the opening here but little business was done here for foreign account, perhaps on account of the lateness of the opening. There was more buying of Canadian Pacific for Germany, which made it strong in contrast with the general list.

The bond market was heavy, with further selling of the old established issues, owing to the readjustment made necessary by the issuance of new issues at high interest rates.

Total sales, par value, $1,380,000.

Panama 3s, coupon, advanced ½ on call. Total sales of stocks today, 180,500 shares.

Spring Time Is Blood Cleaning Time

Wonderful How Quickly Your Entire System Awakens When the Blood is Cleansed.

Let S. S. S. Rid You of All Blood Disorders.

If you are down with rheumatism; if you sneeze, feel chilled, are choked with catarrh, have a cough, or your skin is pimpled and irritated with rash, eczema, or any other blood disorder, just remember that almost all the ills of life come from impure blood. And you can easily give your blood a good, thorough cleansing, a bath, by using S. S. S. There is no need for anyone to be despondent over the illness of blood impurities. No matter how badly they attack the system, or how unsightly becomes the skin, just remember there is one ingredient in S. S. S. that so stimulates the cellular tissues throughout the body that each part selects its own essential nutriment from the blood.

This means that all decay, all breaking down of the tissues, is checked and repair work begins. S. S. S. has such a specific influence on all local cells as to preserve their mutual welfare and afford a proper relative assistance to each other. More attention is being given to constructive medicine than ever before and S. S. S. is the highest achievement in this line. For many years people relied upon mercury, iodide of potash, arsenic, "physics," cathartics and "dope" as remedies for blood sickness, but now the pure, vegetable S. S. S. is their safeguard.

You can get S. S. S. in any drug store, but insist upon having it. And you should take no chance by permitting anyone to recommend a substitute. And if your blood condition is such that you would like to consult a specialist freely and confidentially, address the Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Company, 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

If you neglect kidney backache,
Urinary troubles often follow.

Wilmington citizens endorse them.

J. F. Hansley, 406 Walnut St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys troubled me a great deal and I think it was due to my being on my feet so much. I suffered from dull, dragging backaches and I could not stoop without having sharp twinges in my loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and there was sediment in them. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box from Bellamy's Drug Store and in a few days, the pains and aches left. I have not had to use a kidney medicine since and I am glad to say that Doan's Kidney Pills brought me lasting benefit. You are welcome to continue publishing my former testimonial."

cluster of men closely identified with Mr. Morgan in his career. They were George S. Bowdoin, Lewis Cass Ledyard, Robert W. DeForest, Henry Fairfield Osborn, Elihu Root, Joseph H. Choate, Robert Bacon, George F. Baker, Dr. J. W. Markoe, Elbert H. Gary, Seth Low and Martin W. Patton.

The chancel was banked high with floral offerings. Among the flowers there were orchids and palm leaves from the Emperor of Germany; a gold Maltese cross beneath a crown of palms from the French Republic; a garland of violets and lilies of the valley from the British ambassador; a wreath of orchids from the Italian government.

There was no variation in the services from the Episcopal ritual. The chant from the Thirty-ninth and Ninetieth Psalms, "Lord, let we know my end and the number of my days," was sung as the coffin entered the church. "Asleep in Jesus" and "Lead, Kindly Light," favorite hymns of Mr. Morgan, were sung by the choir; "Calvary" was sung as a solo. As the funeral party left the church the choir sang the recessional, "For all Thy saints who from their labors rest."

Four pews were reserved for partners of J. P. Morgan & Company and their wives. Thirty-one societies, institutions or organizations with which Mr. Morgan was identified were represented. Among those present were Andrew Carnegie, Thomas A. Edison, Charles D. Mellen, W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, Clarence H. Mackay, August Belmont, Henry C. Frick, General Thomas H. Hubbard, George B. Cortelyou and Frank A. Vanderlip.

The Morgan family proper included Mrs. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Satterlee, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hamilton and Miss Annie Morgan. Eight other pews were filled with relatives and close friends.

A crowd that the police estimated at 25,000 persons choked the thoroughfares leading to the church. Across Second avenue, in Stuyvesant Square, directly opposite the entrance to the church, 5,000 more had been waiting for hours. A hundred policemen kept the throngs.

Memorial in London

London, April 14.—A cosmopolitan congregation attended memorial services for the late J. Pierpont Morgan in Westminster Abbey today. King George was represented by Captain Sir Walter Campbell, groom in waiting, and Queen Mother Alexandria by the Hon. John Ward, eqry to the King.

Official, diplomatic, financial, art and church circles were present in force and large numbers of Americans, both resident and transient attended.

The dean of Westminster officiated. The service duplicated the funeral service at New York.

Respect Shown in Chicago.

Chicago, April 14.—As a mark of respect to the memory of J. Pierpont Morgan, members of the Chicago stock exchanged ceased business for 15 minutes today during the funeral services of the financier.

Albany, N. Y., April 14.—New York State will receive between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 in inheritance tax on the estate of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, according to preliminary estimates made by attaches of the State comptroller's office. The estimate is based on a report that the total estate will be about $100,000,000.

Capt. W. F. Corbett, of the Tidewater Power Co., who will have personal charge of the Sunday School excursions to be operated to Wrightsville Beach during the month of May, has issued the following instructions for the superintendents of the Sunday Schools:

"East Wilmington Sunday School goes with St. Andrew's Sunday School, and boards train at 17th and Market streets.

"Christian Science Sunday School also boards train at 17th and Market streets.

"Stops are to be made both ways to accommodate these schools.

"Stops are also made both ways at Delgado and Winter Park for the Sunday Schools at those places.

"Train stops at Shell Road Crossing both ways for Mt. Lebanon School.

"There will be no stops on these excursion trains for the Sunday Schools after leaving Front and Princess street, except as above provided for.

"Several superintendents have not yet notified Capt. Corbett at what hour they want to leave Wilmington. This is important."

FATHER'S AWFUL DEED.

Murdered His Four Children and Then Killed Himself.

Fitchburg, Miss., April 14.—Ernest Moschner, aged 35, murdered his four children and then killed himself by shooting, at his home here today. Continued ill health made the man temporarily insane, the police believe.

Moischner's wife, upon returning from work, discovered the bodies of her children and husband with bullet holes in their heads.

The murdered children were Elsie, aged 12; Myrtle, aged 11; Norman, aged eight, and Ernest, aged six.

According to the police the children were playing in the yard when their father called them upstairs in his bedroom. There, from the marks of the muddy feet, the officers believe, he lined the children up in front of the bed and shot them to death. He then sent a bullet into his brain.

Up to a short time ago Moeschner had been a tuberculosis patient at the State hospital. Previously he had been employed as a baker.

WOULD BLOW UP BANK

Can Filled With Powder Picked Up—Mrs. Pankhurst

London, April 14.—A milk can filled with gunpowder and connected with an electric fuse was found this afternoon inside the railway surrounding the Bank of England. It was removed by the police.

Smoke was issuing from the can when a policeman found it. He plunged it into a fountain. When the can was examined a clockwork arrangement was found inside. The attempt on the bank is attributed by some to the militant suffragettes.

The police, however, have been able to discover no clue as to who placed the bomb where it was found and there is no evidence to connect the suffragettes with the alleged attempt against the bank. The bomb contained only a small quantity of ordinary gunpowder.

London, April 14.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who recently was released from Holloway pail, is still in a serious condition. It is even reported that she has had a relapse.

TRINITY COLLEGE NEWS

Annual Sophomore Debate—Lectures, Society Notes and Other Items

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., April 13.—Tuesday night in Craven Memorial Hall the annual Sophomore debate was held. Eight speakers were originally chosen from the class to compete for the prize, but only four of them appeared in the final contest. Those originally chosen for the debate were as follows: R. L. Brown, E. S. Savage, B. F. Taylor, B. C. Snow, Barnard, Few, Miss Mary Berry and MissCatherine Thomas. Only the first four of these appeared in the final contest.

The question debated was: Resolved, That every child in North Carolina between ages of seven and 14 should be compelled to attend school at least six months in the year. Mr. E. S. Savage was awarded the prize.

The Classical Club met last night and a paper was presented by Mr. C. G. Cordle. The subject of Mr. Cordle's paper was "Crassus, the Financier of the Julian Age." After the reading of the paper a general discussion took place.

Professor Gill, president of the club, announced that he had secured Professor Kirby Smith's promise to deliver a lecture at Trinity on May 10th. Professor Smith is perhaps the best known classical student of the country, and the character of his lectures is known and appreciated throughout the educational world. His services are much sought for, and the fact that Professor Gill is a former pupil of the great classicist accounts for his consenting to lecture here. The subject of Prof. Smith's lecture will be "Propertius, a Modern Lover of the Augustan Age."

Reverend Thornton Whaling, of Columbia, S. C., has been on the campus for the past week. He came to deliver the year's series of Avera Bible lectures. Every year some prominent lecturer gives a series of Bible lectures here, but none has ben better attended or more thoroughly appreciated than were Rev. Mr. Thornton's. He delivered three lectures during his stay here. On Tuesday night he spoke on "Jesus and the Scripture;" Wednesday night, on "Jesus and the Atonement," and Thursday night, on "Jesus and His Kingdom."

Friday night the local chapter of Sigma Upsilon, the Fortnightly Club, met in its regular hall. The topic of the evening was Latin influence on the Elizabethan drama, and the paper of the evening was read by Mr. Charles Bagley. This discussion was especially interesting just at this time, since the Coburn Players, who are engaged for four outdoor performances here this Spring, are going to play Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors."

The new catalogue of Trinity College for the academic year of 1912-13 has been received at the college office this week from the printers. In appearance the new issue is similar to its predecessors and varies but little in general contents. The new elective scheme is explained in this year's book for the first time. There are a few minor changes in several of the courses offered, particularly in the departments of Greek, and in the division of augumentation of the English department.

This year's catalogue shows that there are 798 students on the campus this academic year. This includes 458 academic students, ten in the law school, 149 in the school of education, and 187 students of the Trinity Park Schol.

Professor William H. Glasson, of the department of Economics, has accepted an invitation to serve this Spring as a non-resident lecturer at Johns Hopkins University. It is a standing custom of the department of Economics at Johns Hopkins to arrange each year for short courses of lectures upon sepcialized fields of economics inquiry by non-resident lecturers.

The recent passage by Congress of a new service pension, involving the heaviest expenditures of any pension law in the history of the country, has directed the attention of students of public finance to the importance of scientific investigation in this field. Dr. Glasson will give a course of lectures on successive days, beginning with Monday, April 21st, on the general theme, "Military Pensions in American Public Finance."

The individual lectures will deal with the origin of the pension system and its development prior to the Civil War, with the evolution of the Civil War pension system, with the history and methods of pension administration, with the social and economic effects of the pension system, and with both Federal and Confederate pensions as effect the Southern States.

SPAIN'S KING ESCAPES.

Bullet of Anarchist Fired at Him in Streets of Madrid.

Madrid, April 13.—For the third time in his reign, King Alfonso narrowly escaped today being the victim of an anarchist attempt against his life. Three shots were fired at the King this afternoon in the streets of the capital by a native of Barcelona, Rafael Sanchez Allegro, who was immediately overpowered.

Madrid, April 14.—King Alfonso took a ride in the park this morning and was warmly saluted by crowds who noisily proclaimed their joy that the king has escaped the bullets fired by the anarchist Rafael Allegro yesterday. Allegro is still in a merry mood today. During his examination he forced the guard surrounding him and the interrogating magistrates to laugh at his witty comments.

Inquiries made by the police show that Allegro was recently rejected as a candidate for the Spanish military service owing to his suffering from nervout attacks. Allegro's wife, it is learned, is a woman of noble birth.

Washington, April 14.—President Wilson cabled King Alfonso of Spain today as follows:

"I am shocked to learn of the attempt on Your Majesty's life and rejoice that you entirely escaped the assassin's bullets.

Valencia, Spain, April 14.—Allegro who yesterday attempted to kill the king, was rejected on three occasions by the military board here as an epileptic, totally unfit for service.

IN MEMORY OF TITANIC DEAD.

Company to Pay Tribute to Victims to Leave for Beach at 3 P. M.

The company going to Wrightsville Beach today to pay tribute to the memory of the Titanic dead on this, the first anniversary of that disaster, will leave the Junction for the Beach at 3 P. M. It is stated that the Red Cross Society will go in a body, and that the pier will be decorated by the C. W. Polvogt Company. The post cards bearing the poem written for the occasion by Mrs. E. May Glenn Toon, may be had at DeRosset's.

Mayor Thos. H. Wright, of Wrightsville Beach, in his official capacity, yesterday invited Mayor Joseph D. Smith, of Wilmington, to attend the exercises. The Mayor received the invitation just before leaving his office yesterday afternoon. On account of another engagement, at the hour of the exercises, Mayor Smith will not be able to attend.

It was announced in Sunday's paper that the address of the occasion will be delivered by Rev. F. B. Clausen, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church. The opening prayer will be offered by Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, and the closing prayer will be by Rev. W. L. Rexford, pastor of Bladen Street Methodist church.

Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, president of the Wilmington branch of the Red Cross Society, is on the programme for a few remarks, and several songs will be sung by a quartette, among them being the hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The exercises will be concluded with the casting of the large and handsome wreath on the waters o fthe Atlantic by Mrs. Toon, who planned the exercises and under whose direction the memorial will be held.

FRIEDMANN IN WASHINGTON

Held Clenic at University Yesterday and Returned to Providence

Washington, April 14.—Dr. Friederich F. Friedmann, of Berlin, who declares he has discovered a cure for tuberculosis, brought his visit to the capital to a close today with a clinic at the George Washington University, at which he inoculated 12 volunteer patients with his vaccine. The clinic was witnessed by Secretary Bryan, Assistant Secretary Osborn, the German ambassador, the Swiss minister, and several United States army and navy surgeons.

More than 100 patients appeared at the University Hospital dispensary and from this number the doctor selected 12 typical cases, some of which had already advanced to the third stage of the disease. Five of the patients were small children who were carried or walked on crutches.

During the day Dr. Friedmann called at the White House and President Wilson told him he earnestly hoped his vaccine would prove successful. After the clinic he saw Senators Luke Lea, of Tennessee, and William Hughes, of New Jersey, at his hotel. He was assured by Senator Hughes that an effort would be made to permit him to practice in the District of Columbia and if possible through out the country.

Dr. Friedmann left for Providence tonight and later will go to New York. He said he probably would again visit Washington for a few days before returning to Berlin.

None of the surgeons of the public health service witnessed the demonstration today.

W. L. I. INSPECTED BY OFFICERS.

Col. Springfield and Capt Greig Find Company Excellent.

The annual inspection of the Wilmington Light Infantry, members of the Coast Artillery Corps, North Carolina National Guard, was held last evening at Front and Market streets, from 8:30 to 11 o'clock, by Col. Thomas Springfield, of Waynesville, inspector general of the North Carolina Guard, and Capt. A. A. Greig, Jr., United States Army. The company which has always ranked as the best in the State, showed up in the finest of style, with 100 per cent. of its membership present, and the inspectors indicated that they thought the W. L. I. was a very fine body of men, giving it "excellent" on a number of points. The corporals were put in charge of the drilling, at one time, and they carried the company through the tactics very nicely. The property was accounted for at the armory in the afternoon.

The company now has 60 men and three officers, and hopes to increase its strength to the full 109 men.

There are 35 applications now on file, to be passed at the next meeting. Capt. E. A. Metts and Lieutenants Cantwell and Lynch officer the company.

New York, April 14.—A blanket indictment charging conspiracy, was returned today by the grand jury investigating alleged graft in the police department against Police Captains Dennis Sweeney, John J. Murtha, James E. Hussey, and James F. Thompson. All these officers formerly were inspectors.

GOLD DUST
cleans windows quickly

With a dry, soft cloth remove dust from both sides, cleaning the corners and grooves with the point of a stick covered with a cloth.

Have ready a pail of warm suds made by dissolving a tablespoon of Gold Dust washing powder in warm water. Dip a soft cloth in the water, squeeze almost dry and wipe the glass off. Polish with chamois, as it leaves no lint. Do not wash windows when the sun is shining on them.

Mirrors should be washed in the same way as windows. Then polish with a soft cloth charged with powdered whiting.

You can buy a large package of Gold Dust for 5 cents.

The same treatment will improve a city. My friends have asked me to assist in this process. If elected I will devote time and efforts towards the same.
